

Fantasia Theme Carried Over To Formal Dance

"Fantasia", the 1961 Homecoming Dance, will cast its magic spell tonight from 8 to 12 p.m. in the Harvey Gymnasium. In keeping with the "Fantasyland" theme of the Homecoming Parade, the dance will be decorated to portray a mystical garden with giant mushrooms and blue roses.

Music for the occasion will be provided by the College Dance Band under the direction of Mr. Stanley Michalski.

Glenn Plyler and Lorraine Bright are the general chairmen. Janet Barbero is chairman of the decorating committee. The publicity committee is headed by Virginia Burdett.

CSC Welcomes Alumni Visitors

The faculty and students of Clarion State College wish to extend a hearty welcome to their alumni during this celebration of the Autumn Leaf Festival.

This weekend of activities begins with the parade held on Saturday morning followed by the Homecoming Game against Lock Haven State College.

Most Greek organizations will display banners of their colors and hold teas in honor of the Greek alumni.

Students, old and new, are cordially invited to join in the campus activities celebrating Homecoming weekend.

Joan Wayne to Reign over Festivities

Reigning over the Homecoming activities today is Joan Wayne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Myron Wayne of Beaver, Pennsylvania. Queen Joan is a senior, majoring in secondary education and specializing in biology. Her extra-curricular activities include Newman Club, W.A.A., P.S.E.A., Bios Club, and Delta Zeta sorority of which she is president.

Senior attendants are Dorothy Lewis and Virginia Linnan. Dorothy is from Neville Island and is an elementary education major. Last year Dorothy was a junior attendant to the Homecoming Queen. Virginia is an elementary education major from Clarion. Last year, she was White Rose Queen of the Sigma Tau Gamma fraternity. Virginia is past secretary of Delta Zeta sorority.

For the first time in the history of Clarion State College, there will be two attendants added to the Queen's court. Bonnie Schantz and Sylvia Anderton are representing Venango Campus, Clarion's off-campus center in Oil City, Pennsylvania. Bonnie is an elementary education major from Oil City. Sylvia is also from Oil City and is a Library Science major.

Other attendants to the Homecoming Queen are Jayne Miller and Linda Baker, representing the Junior Class; Carol Horvath, and Nancy Horlick, representing the Sophomore Class; and Dana Zook and Sharon Koch, representing the Freshman Class.

Fantasy Parade, To End Autumn Leaf Festival Sat.

Clarion will simultaneously begin Homecoming Weekend and the close of the Autumn Leaf Festival Saturday, October 7, at 12:30 p.m. with its annual parade centering around the student selected theme, Fantasyland.

Judged by KDKA personalities, the parade will consist of 13 floats entered by campus organizations, in addition to the senior class float honoring the Homecoming Queen, Joan Wayne. Seven bands and numerous convertibles carrying organizations officers will increase the college portion of the parade to fifty-seven units.

Before the parade begins, the famous Saegertown band will perform on Main Street. If time permits, they will also present a program on the football field at 2:10 p.m., prior to the game against Lock Haven.

This year the Homecoming Parade marshal is Bill Suttiff of Bruin, who is now student teaching at Brookville. Dr. Bruce Dinsmore of the biology department is acting as faculty chairman of the event. Assisting in the coordination of the parade are Glenn Speedy, Tim Welty, Pat DeMarte, Neil Shively, Tony Szymkowiak, and Jack Nold.

The parade route will begin at the Memorial Park on Main Street and continue to Seventh Avenue where it will turn right. It will then proceed on Wood Street toward the college and conclude at the football field.

This year's festivity promises to surpass the 150 unit parade of last year in size and content. The Clarion Chamber of Commerce has increased the prizes for first, second, and third place floats to $75, $50, and $25 respectively.

Dorothy Lewis, Joan Wayne and Virginia Linnan, senior members of the Homecoming Court, celebrate the Autumn Leaf Festival at the Antique Car Show.

Club Receives Sports Goods

At the end of the second semester of last year, the members of the Circle "K" Club accepted several articles of sports equipment from Dr. D. R. Predmore who was sponsor of the once very active Outdoor Club. The equipment was presented by Dr. Predmore to the Circle "K" Club on behalf of the Outdoor Club.

The Circle "K" Club was very happy to receive the equipment which ranges from ping pong sets to bows and arrows. At present, members of the Circle "K" Club are formulating a program which will enable the students of CSC to use the equipment. We plan to have a program in operation shortly.

The Circle "K" Club wishes to thank the Outdoor Club and Dr. Predmore for their generosity and consideration.

EDITORIAL

Every institution of learning is actually a small community with its student in the role of private citizens. As citizens, students must fulfill their duties in every capacity — government, support, and active interest.

What significance is this statement to each student on the CSC campus? Undoubtedly, not every student may win the office of class president or secretary, but surely, as members of the community, each student is expected to attend class meetings and cast his vote when asked to do so.

A similar policy applies to the support of our teams, in football, basketball, or baseball. As athletic leaders, the team represents us, the general public, and, the community. What value is this athletic display unless there is a supporting group to encourage the team's spirited attempts?

Just as the community provides certain public facilities, the college also organizes clubs and activities for the benefit of the student. What possible good can these clubs do if the student does not patronize them?

As intelligent students living in an advancing world, we must realize the need to prepare ourselves for the future. There can be no system as adequate as a college community to acquaint us with the complexities of modern society.

If we are interested in preparing ourselves to be good citizens and competent teachers, we shall not ignore our responsibilities on campus.

Venango Campus Offers
New Extension Program

VENANGO CAMPUS
More students, more buildings, better facilities — Clarion State College is on the move toward new horizons. The expansion on the main campus can be seen by all Clarion campus students, but they cannot see the total expansion which involves a neighboring county and community.

The expansion we are speaking about is the Venango Campus extension of the college in Oil City. Clarion can be proud of this new addition, for it is the first of its type in any of the fourteen state colleges in Pennsylvania.

Examining the purposes behind this center, we find this campus was started for two reasons: first, to serve a population that might not otherwise go to college; secondary, to carry out the Governor's wishes for the starting of community colleges in Pennsylvania.

The present location of Venango Campus is in the Oil City Bank Building, and its enrollment is 136 students for 1961-62.

The extension has the full accreditation of a two year junior college. The curriculum for the first year is a general freshman curriculum with maximum credit of 34 or 35 hours. The students after completing the two years at the extension will be able to transfer to the main campus to finish their schooling.

The plan for the future is to move into a new building which will be opened in January. The enrollment next year is expected to be 250 freshmen and sophomores.

Venango Campus will share with the main campus in all big social functions, such as "Frosh Week." Homecoming, special assemblies and programs, and the spring formal. Thus, out of their interest in C.S.C. and our interest in Venango, Sylvia Anderton and Bonnie Schatz will represent the Venango center as attendants to the queen in the Homecoming parade.

College Players To Present Epic

In conjunction with the Civil War Centennial, the College Players and Music Department of Clarion State College will present "John Brown's Body," by Stephen Vincent Benet with music by Tenno Heath in the College Chapel on October 11 through 14, at 8:15 p.m. The production will be staged by Mr. Bob H. Copeland with music under the direction of Mr. William McDonald.

This epic is a series of poems dealing with many aspects of life against the historical background of the Civil War. The stories of its heroes, Jack Ell-yat (Charles Belavic) from the north and his southern counterpart Clay Wingate (Anthony Szymkowiak) are the threads which hold the work together. Two heroines emerge, Melora Vilos (Carol McDonald) and Sally Dupre (Barbara Terrill) whose lives are eventually bound up in the lives of the heroes. Sargeant Bailey is played by George Ihnat.

Narrators for the production include Doris Cooper, David Aldelman, and Bruce Murphy. Dancers selected for the solo numbers are Lorna Palmer and Darla Warden, Sue Warden, Barry Truffa, and Paul Thomas. All choreography will be staged by Mrs. Lee Miller, well known local dance instructor.

The Madrigal singers will provide the choral background for the entire play. The twenty voice choir will include: Eddylee Burkett, Jane Andre, Donna Spinos, Grace Bailey, Carol Phillips, Sally Aber, Carol Clinger, Nancy Horlick, Annabella Minarcin, John Mango, Joe Szymkowiak, Jerry Bordon, Jim McLaughlin, David Bouser, Monroe Nelson, and Todd Thompson.

Four Freshmen
Entertain CSC

THE FOUR FRESHMEN

FOUR FRESHMEN

The Four Freshmen, a nationally known vocal group, presented two concerts in the college Chapel on Tuesday evening, October 3.

Students flocked to both concerts to see these four performers display the talent that won for them the title of "Best Vocal Group."

In addition to its singing, this quartet also plays a total of seven instruments. Bill Corns-ock, who composes and arranges much of the music, strums the guitar. Bob Flanigan plays trombone and string bass, while Ross Barbour, master of ceremonies, plays drums and trumpet. Ken Albers, who also blows trumpet, doubles on the mellophone.

The Four Freshmen appear at many of the country's leading night clubs and concert halls. They have played at the Palladium, the Hollywood Bowl, state fairs, conventions, and just about every major college in the United States. This group is now under contract to Capitol records, due to the efforts of Stan Kenton, who saw their performance in Dayton, Ohio.

Although southern California is the home base for the Freshmen, they spend most of the year touring the country. Ross and Bob are originally from Indiana, and Ken and Bill hail from New Jersey.

CARD OF THANKS

To the Faculty and Students and Friends of Clarion State College:

Mere words are inadequate to express our gratitude. To each and everyone who has helped us through these days of sorrow with beautiful flowers, words of sympathy and deeds of infinite kindness, we can only say, "Thank you so much."

Mrs. Edna Michel and Kamel.

NOTICE:

There will be a mass meeting of all Day Students on October 8, 1961 in the Chapel fifth period. The purpose of this meeting is to nominate candidates for officers.

Note: There is a suggestion box in Room 732 Davis Hall.

UPPERCLASSMEN INITIATE FROSH

During the week of September 18 to 23, the freshmen became acquainted with the customs and traditions of Clarion. Wearing their dinks and signs, they performed tasks and sang songs at the command of upperclassmen.

Frosh Week was initiated five years ago by Miss Grace Pryor and Dr. James C. King. It is designed to acquaint the freshmen with the educational, cultural, and social life of Clarion.

Richard Kilgore, chairman of Frosh Week, with his committee, composed of Frank Rocco, Nina Miller, Larry Kuzma, Judy Elwinger, Bob Avery, and Jo Ann Small, organized the activities this year.

The tribunal was overflowing with freshmen violators. A variety of punishments were given, ranging from Pam Miller's speech in the union to the entertainment at the Frosh Hop by Mickey Zabec, Kathy Bengel, and Judy Olivo.

Golden Eagles Clobber
Grove City 20-0 Sept. 30

The Clarion Golden Eagles gave the Grove City Wolverines something to howl about Saturday Sept. 30, at Grove City. The Eagles beat the Grovers 20-0 before a crowd of 3500 people, as Grove City opened their home season against Clarion.

The game got off to a slow start with neither team gaining much ground. Late in the first quarter, Grove City advanced to Clarion's 13 yard line. Bill Beatty attempted a field goal from the 13, but it was wide of the goal.

With two minutes left in the half, Lou Hutcherson threw a perfect 46 yard pass to Bill Jackson. Although Jackson was hemmed in by two Grove City defenders, he grabbed the pass and went across for the touchdown. Joe Urban attempted the extra point kick, but it was no good. The half ended with the score Clarion 6 Grove City 0.

Two minutes after the start of the second half, Clarion was on the move again. Steve Predjina recovered Todd Alexander's fumble on the Grove City 35 yard line. The Eagles gained two first downs and the Grovers were penalized 5 yards, which placed the ball on the Grovers 6 yard line. Lou Hutcherson handed off to Bill Jackson who drove across the goal line carrying two tacklers with him. Joe Urban's PAT attempt was good making the score 13-0 Clarion.

In the fourth quarter, Scott Wentzel played an important part by intercepting Ernest Bremick's pass on the Grove City 43 yard line. The Golden Eagles obtained a first down as a result of the interception.

sult of the running efforts of Sam Condelucci and Joe Majersky. Lou Hutcherson attempted a pass across the center of the line, but it was deflected off the helmet of a Grover defender into the hands of Clarion's Joe Majersky, who ran the remaining 35 yards for the touchdown. Joe Urban's PAT attempt was good making the final score of the game Clarion 20 — Grove City 0.

It would be hard to pick out a few star players but a new name appeared along with the usual fine performers. That was the name of Freshman Joe Majersky, who had a great day on both defense and offense.

Golden Eagles Host Lock Haven
At Homecoming Game Saturday

This afternoon's game with Lock Haven has drawn many former Clarionites back to their alma mater. They anticipate a victory which the Clarion Eagles are sure to bring.

The boys will be playing their best because this will be the last homecoming game for many of the players.

Clarion's victory over Grove City has spurred the morale of the team. It showed that the team has the ability and if they play up to their potentials a victory is certain.

As usual the coaches are remaining silent as to what they feel the outcome of the game will be.

Our Football Captains

The Golden Eagles are being captained this season by three seniors who are familiar figures both on the football field and on the campus. These able tri-captains, Earl Boley, Sam Condelucci, and Bob Cloherty, are very optimistic concerning their final gridiron season.

Earl "Sonny" Boley, a 170-pound, 5-foot-11-inch guard from Oakmont, is wrapping up his fourth season as an Eagle. As president of Alpha Gamma Phi Fraternity, he will be graduating in May with a biology major and English minor.

Stow Township's Sam Condelucci is a 185-pound, 5-foot-10-inch fullback. Clarion's fans are used to Sam in his position, because he has held it for four years through his consistent playing. In addition to carrying the football, Sam is carrying an English major and social studies minor. The Sigma Tau Gamma can be very proud of this brother.

The third member of the captain triangle is Gamma B o b "Tick" Cloherty. "Tick", a husky 260-pound, 6-foot-2 tackle, is putting in his final season. He will graduate in the secondary field.

In their final Homecoming these boys, will be playing their hardest to continue Clarion's winning streak.

To those who wonder why the new Faculty is on this page. The answer is simple . . . We think they are good sports !

A Peek at Greeks

Greeks who have not been seen around campus lately have been very busy working on floats and teas for Homecoming. Of course these hours of fun and work together might end up as a first place prize on Homecoming for any one of the organizations.

The 1961-62 Panhellenic Council was brought to order by President, Diane Rich. Also taking official duties for this year were Carol Slattery, Vice President; Peggy Yale, Secretary; Alice Tomer, Treasurer; and Kathy Caylor, Social Chairman.

The Panhellenic reception for this year has been cancelled. The next project on the Council's agenda is the annual Panhellenic Halloween Party.

To the new freshmen: Beta Chi Upsilon are the girls in the rose and white, one of the newest sororities on campus.

We wish to send our best wishes to our student teachers, co-rinners Kress, Carol Kress, and Suelen Lehner. Fine praises go to our sisters Judy Wilson and Peggy Yale for their industrious work in the "big-little" sister program.

On Monday September 25, the Delta Zetas installed their officers for 1961-1962.

Big homecoming plans had the Deltas in a whirl. Annabelle Minarcin, Micky McDunn, Joyce Meruski, Jackie Waffel, Karen Wolfe, and Brenda Zannotti will highlight our float, "The Plight of Pinnocchio". An annual alumnae tea will be held in Becht Hall lounge immediately following the afternoon football game.

Congratulations are extended to Charlene Benninghoff, Phi Sigma Epsilon Tea Rose Queen, and to Nancy Horlick, Sophomore Homecoming Attendant.

Sigma Delta Phi Sorority would like to extend congratulations to Nancy Alter on being elected vice president of our sorority. She will take over the office left vacant with the resignation of Maureen Healey.

Good luck to our sisters Mary Ellen Hamrock, Sandy Melick, Donna Deveney, and Pat Rice who are student teaching this semester.

We wish to express our thanks to our sister, Rosemary Milligan, who is in charge of our Homecoming float this year. We also are looking forward to renewing old acquaintances at our Homecoming Alumnae Tea.

While preparing for our first few days of classes, Sigma Sigma has had a National Officer, Mrs. Luther M. Lee, visiting us.

On September 19, Mrs. Lee called to order the Regional Meet held at the Hotel Webster Hall in Pittsburgh. Beta Theta, from Pitt, hosted the meet, composed of the Appalachian Chapters of Tri Sigma. Miss Wiant, Miss Irwin, and eight members of our chapter attended the meet.

Our patronesses had a picnic for us at the home of Mrs. Car-nahan on Monday, September 25. Everyone had a good time and we made our final plans for our bake sale, Saturday, September 30, and our homecoming float. The Tri Sigmas will have an alumnae tea on Homecoming, October 7 to welcome back our alumni of Clarion.

Monday, September 18, the Zeta Tau Alpha Sorority started the year's activities with a party at the home of Shirley Sushera, our advisor. An initiation banquet and a Halloween party with our brothers, the Alpha Gamma Phi Fraternity are being planned.

We wish to send white violet to Miss Lorry Kidd, who on June 8, 1961 was crowned Miss Clarion County, and Jo Ann Smal on being first runner up.

Good luck to Dixie Lee Seabright who will be co-head majorette of the college band for the third year.

The Alpha Gamma Phi fraternity is planning a very eventful semester in which we hope all the brothers will cooperate and assist in making it a success. New officers in the frat are Dick Kilgore, President; Ray Supak, Vice - President; Bill Meli, Secretary; Jim Mazza, Chaplin; Jim Distifano, Treasurer; Frank Miller, Guard; and Ed Killian, Parliamentarian. All the brothers take this opportunity to wish the new officers the best of luck and at the same time to extend their appreciation to last semester's officers.

Homecoming will be a big day, long remembered by this year's queen, Pat Aloia. Pat is a freshman from Washington, Pa. The Gammas are very proud and honored to have her represent us. To show our appreciation, she will be given roses to carry in the parade and will be invited to dinner after the game.

As usual, the Gammas will be well represented on the football field this year. On the team are brothers Hutcherson, Widmar, Cloherty, Boley, Jackson, Urban, McNally, Kalup, Welsh, and Mitolo.

The members of Sigma Tau Gamma fraternity have elected Dee Green of Sigma Sigma Sigma sorority and Diane McElrath of Delta Zeta sorority as our fraternity sweethearts for Homecoming this year.

Our fraternity brothers would also like to congratulate Sam

Clarion Hosts Conference

This past Saturday Clarion State College was host for the annual conference for the elementary teachers from the Clarion area. This year the group centered its attention on the social studies programs in our elementary schools.

Dr. Wilhelmina Hill was the key speaker for this group. She works in the Social Studies branch of the Office of Education in Washington D.C. Her talk brought out many of the new ideas that the federal government is backing for social studies in our schools. Dr. Hill has been chosen to meet with Adlai Stevenson to discuss social studies programs.

After her talk, the group saw a related movie and then had a lunch in the cafeteria.

The group met again in the afternoon for workshops, and the session concluded with a general session in the chapel.

A Clue to Clubs

Condeluci who is Co - Captain of the football team this year. Other brothers on the team are Al Porter, Joe Burg, Jack Loya, and Larry B. Shreckengost.

Epsilon Xi Chapter of Theta Chi National Fraternity has this year initiated a new policy concerning the selection of a "Dream Girl" to represent us in all college activities. A committee of five girls which were nominated by the membership. After this rigorous screening, the vote was taken and our selection was made. We are pleased to announce that Miss Jane Andre has been chosen the "Dream Girl" of Theta Chi for the school year 1961-62, and she will represent us in all college activities this year. Congratulations Jane!

We feel that no finer choice could have been made. (If your Greek news did not appear this time let it be a lesson to you to get it in on time for the next issue.)

The Circle "K" Club is anticipating another year filled with activities which will benefit both students and faculty. Circle "K" men have formed various committees which are busy planning this year's programs. Some programs already slated for the C.S.C. campus are: Variety Night, Winter Capades, and various dances.

The Circle "K" Club, formed in 1959, maintains the ideals of Kiwanis International. It is primarily a service organization, which has in mind the well-being of C.S.C. Those freshmen who carry a recommendation of the Dean of Instruction and the Dean of Admissions are eligible for membership.

Our very capable sponsor is Mr. Charles Pearce, and the worthy leaders of this organization are president, Bob Avery, vice - president, Bill Mesol; secretary, John Lusky; treasurer, Roger Davis; assistant secretary, David Rimer.

All the clubs of Clarion State all the upperclassmen and join in a very special welcome to all the new freshmen. We cordially invite the freshmen as well as the upperclassmen to examine and consider the many organizations which are all a part of a successful college life.

The membership committee of Clarion PSEA is pleased to announce that the PSEA has attained a membership of 500.

PSEA extends an invitation to all students of Clarion to join their professional organization. "Come on Clarion students", let's be tops in the state.

All members are urged to read the "Newsletter" and check the blackboard in Seminary Hall for notices concerning PSEA.

The International Relations Club is planning an active and extended program this year. Among planned activities are the Washington trip, November 16, 17, and 18. Reservations are now being taken in Dr. King's office at the cost of $30. Also planned is the New York City trip in April. These tours are open to all students.

Meetings of the IRC are held in room 312, Seminary Hall the second and fourth Tuesday of every month at 7:30 in the evening.

The first meeting of the WAA, a club exclusively for the women of the campus, was held in the Gym Sunday evening, September 17, at 8:00. At the gathering, the point system was explained to the new members.

The group is having soft ball games every Monday and Thursday afternoons at 3:30 to 4:30. There will be volleyball, basketball, and ping pong later in the year.

Officers for this year are as follows: Sandra Pifer, president; and Pat Barnhart, secretary - treasurer. A new vice-president must be elected. Managers this year are Gail Andrew and Joyce Fusca.

CSC Band Adopts New The Half-Time Show Style

The Clarion State College Marching Band, under the direction of Mr. Stanley F. Michalski, Jr., was rewarded for its practices and efforts by a warm reception from all who viewed the halftime show at the Homecoming Game. This year the band has been using a new style of halftime shows all arranged by Mr. Michalski. This new style includes music, narrations, and formations which all center around one theme for the entire show. For example, the central theme of the Homecoming Game was "The Freshmen Class," and for the Indiana game on the twenty-first, the show was built around numbers. For the game on the twenty-eighth, the band gave a performance concerning colors. The first formation was an artist's palette and the band played "Deep Purple." Other formations were a tulip for "You Wore A Yellow Tulip," a champagne glass for "Blue Champagne," a lady for "Lady in Red" and a Christmas Tree symbolizing "White Christmas."

The band not only performs at the half-times of games, but plays throughout the game to encourage school spirit. An innovation this year is singing cheers which are especially arranged for the band to cooperate with the cheerleaders and in which all students can participate.

Worthy of recognition is Bob Avery's remarkable job as drum major of the marching band. Bob graduated from Butler High School in 1960 where he served as drum major on the band, but this is his first year of capturing the college band. For his spirited performance, Bob deserves much praise.

The band, at this time, wishes to extend honors to two of its members. Lorrie Kidd, who plays clarinet, is honored for reigning over the Autumn Leaf Festival as Miss Festival and Miss Clarion County. Also, congratulations are extended to Dick Harmon, a first cornet player, for being the newly elected student senate president.

Recruit Program Is Demonstrated

On October 31, Lieutenant Nelson of the Aviation Officer Candidate program visited the Clarion campus. He spent his time in the Union passing out pamphlets and giving information to boys about the AOC program.

He explained that this program was set up into three divisions—two for navy pilot trainees and one for an observer program. This program usually interests college graduates who would enter the service as Commissioned Ensigns under the AOC.

Written exams for the program may be taken at anytime in Pittsburgh or Philadelphia with no obligation for joining.

Lieutenant Nelson is visiting colleges throughout Pennsylvania. He stated that he found our campus very nice. An AOC representative will be visiting our campus again in the spring.

On the Lighter Side

A chapel speaker was preaching to a school on the lack of Good Samaritan spirit in the world today. To illustrate he recited an episode that had happened in New York: "During the lunch hour I walked with a friend towards a nearby restaurant when we saw lying on the street a helpless fellow human who had collapsed." After a solemn pause he added, "Not only had nobody bothered to stop and help this poor fellow, but on our way back we saw him lying on the same spot."

Liberal Arts Program at CSC Advanced

By September, 1962, Clarion State College expects to offer a liberal arts curriculum in addition to teacher training.

The Faculty Senate met October 30 and discussed plans for the revision of the general education program in light of requirements in a degree in arts and sciences.

They feel that Clarion's education program, with little revision, is comparable to many liberal arts programs.

According to James D. Moore, Dean of Instruction, the first step in the revision of the program would be to offer majors in English, mathematics and other departments in which Clarion already offers a considerable number of electives.

The problem of whether the state colleges would offer a general program or specific courses for preparation in a particular profession such as medicine or law is yet to be decided.

Under consideration also, is the plan of offering a two-year technical program whereby students could achieve a semi-professional status and be awarded an associate degree rather than a baccalaureate degree.

Consideration of a liberal arts program was made two years ago when the word teachers was dropped from state college titles.

Players to Give 'The Crucible' Nov. 16 to 20

The College-Community Theatre, an organization of the Speech and Dramatic Art Department of Clarion State College, will present Arthur Miller's "The Crucible" on November 16, 17, 18, and 20 at 8:15 in the College Chapel. "The Crucible," by the author of "Death of a Salesman," found genuine success on Broadway. It is an exciting drama about the Puritan purge of witchcraft in old Salem. It tells how small lies—children's lies—build and build until a whole town is aroused and 19 men and women go to the gallows for being possessed of the Devil. They are good men and women, upright, hard-working, compassionate and God-fearing. It is a thrilling, blood-curdling, terrifying play as it depicts the monstrous course of bigotry and deceit.

Leading roles will be played by Lavelle Hepler of the community and Charles Belavic of the college as Mr. and Mrs. John Proctor. Other major roles are Dr. Elbert Moses, Jr. as Giles Corey; Edward Huffman as Mr. Cheever; Rev. Robert Reader as Rev. Hale; Elizabeth Sibley as Susanne; Rosalyn Wein as Ann Putnam; John Haskell as Mr. Putnam; Dr. Longwell as Mr. Nurse; Merritt Davis as Governor Danforth; Mary Moses as Rebecca Nurse; Joyce Holley as Tituba; Howard Hopkins as Mr. Willard; William McDonald as Judge Hathorne; Sue Hartz as Betty, and Rose Lamorella as Mercy.

Students and faculty will be admitted on their Theatre Season Pass. Anyone who does not yet have a pass, please see Mr. Cope-land in 311.

Student Personnel Office Is Organized for College

The newly created Office of the Dean of Students is headed by Darrell F. Rishel, D. Ed., who comes to Clarion from Hiram College, Ohio. At Hiram, Dr. Rishel was Dean of Men and Director of Student Activities, a position comparable to the present Dean of Students.

Dr. and Mrs. Rishel reside at Wilson Avenue, located behind Given Hall, which has been a part of the campus since September first. They have two children. Darrell F. Junior is five years old and attends kindergarten at the Training School. Rebecca Louise is three years old.

The creation of the Office of Dean of Students was brought about by the increased enrollment of the college which caused a necessity for a better co-ordinated and centralized student personnel program. It also will provide a means of communication between the students and the administration. This office will be the central point for scheduling all student affairs and will combine many of the functions previously handled by the Dean of Women, Dean of Men, Housing Director, and various faculty members.

Dean Rishel believes strongly in the "open door policy" for students. He says that any student or group may come to his office to discuss any general, personal, or academic problems which face them. The student will receive assistance or he will be directed to a place of assistance through the auspices of the office. Dean Rishel states that Student Personnel Services are most important because they involve much more than formal classroom experiences, and also will assist in the cultural and social development of the individual.

During the four years the student spends in college, he will be exposed to cultural and social experiences as well as to the academic; therefore augmenting an individual with a well-rounded background which will enhance his chances of becoming an ideal citizen of tomorrow.

Editor Attends Meeting

On October 17, the editor of the Clarion Call, Nina Miller, along with editors of college papers in Pennsylvania, met for a press conference with Governor David L. Lawrence in the Governor's office in Harrisburg. The Governor had called the conference to urge students to take an interest in politics and government.

He stated that to have a good government you must have young people who are interested in it. He urged the journalists to consider a political career.

For two hours after the Governor's opening remarks the editors fired questions at him.

When asked why students have to pay the four percent sales tax on textbooks, Governor Lawrence said that he did not believe in "being capricious in handing out tax exemption." Much time and care has to be taken before exemptions can be made, according to the Governor.

He also said he favored a graduated income tax for Pennsylvania. By this method of taxation those who are able to pay carry the and maintaining of personnel records of students to be used for counseling and placement recommendations and the orientation of the freshmen, which includes the testing and counseling programs. The health and food services are now under the auspices of Dean of Students.

Dean Rishel wants the students to know that this office was not created just for administrative and testing purposes, but that it will be the central point for all student activities.

Many students feel that since personnel services for students have never existed that it is not needed. The Dean hopes that as the Office of Dean of Students is better established the students will realize that this is an additional service and will take full advantage of its opportunities.

burden, and the middle man wouldn't suffer so much. After this, the fact that the State's budget is balanced for the first time in 14 years was mentioned.

Governor Lawrence favors the possibilities of community colleges—where high school facilities are used for freshman and sophomore years of college—and trimester college plans. Through these plans money could be saved and more people could receive a college education.

In the Commonwealth's future there will be fewer and larger school districts, the Governor believes.

After this conference the editors were given a tour of the Capitol and then met for other conferences with state officials. Nina attended the conference with Dr. Boehm, Superintendent of Public Instruction.

Throughout the conference Dr. Boehm stressed the need for better economics teachers in college and high school, foreign language teachers and librarians in our state.

Editorial . . .

Do you take time to realize the numerous things for which you, a student at CSC, have to be thankful? You are taking the place of many less fortunate individuals, many of whom failed to meet the requirements when applying for admission into college and others who simply didn't try because of financial problems and various personal reasons. And yet you, along with the majority of other college students, may not be using your ability to the fullest extent.

By cutting class you are cheating yourself. No one can get the full meaning from an assignment by merely reading the book. You must discuss the material with the professor and your classmates and ask questions whenever something is not understood. Only by this discussion will you get the maximum benefit from an assignment.

By cutting class you are also wasting your professor's time. Little thought and consideration is usually given to the professor who is actually the most important individual in the class. Put yourself in his place. How would you feel if, after planning a well organized classroom discussion, only one-half of the students attended class the next day. Although we rarely think of the professor, he is using the best of his ability to teach us. We should show enough respect to attend class.

Another reason to avoid cutting class, which may not seem important now, but will in your future job-hunting years, is the necessity of a good scholastic record. No employer wants to hire a graduate who has cut classes excessively throughout his four years of college.

Most important, cutting class is a complete waste of your money. You are actually paying for every word that your professors speak. Every one of his ideas may influence your way of thinking. Why waste your money by not attending class and learning? You paid for it.

There are many reasons not to cut class, but merely listing them will not influence you. It is your money, your scholastic record, and your decision.

Senior Personalities

Blonde, friendly Nancy Lichko, the "Call's" first girl personality, is well-known on Clarion's campus. A senior, Nancy holds the position of treasurer of the Senior class, as well as being a member of Sigma Sigma Sigma sorority, choir, and PSEA. She appeared recently in the chorus for "John Brown's Body." She can easily be found at meal time in the dining hall, busily taking meal numbers.

A native of Charleroi, Nancy will be graduated this spring in elementary with a music minor. This accounts for her dominant interests, which are music and people in general. Nancy is anxiously anticipating her student teaching next semester. When asked if she is anxious to graduate, Nancy said, "I'll be glad to graduate, but I hate to leave my friends."

A familiar figure on campus is Rixford's Glenn Speedy, senior class president. As a biological science major and physical science minor, Speedy finds time to devote to the many committees and activities to which he belongs. Through his years at CSC, he has been Junior class president, Freshman class treasurer, secretary of Sigma Tau Gamma fraternity, and vice president of Student Senate. He is also a member of such things as the Disciplinary Board, Student Affairs Committee, Athletic Committee, and he attended the Student Government Conference in Harrisburg last spring.

Being interested in almost everything that goes on, Speedy spent his summer working as a tool dresser on an oil rig. August 18th is an important date to him, as he and the former Darla Walters were married on that day this past summer.

When asked if he was anxious to graduate, he said, "Am I ever!"

Paul Chantry — Remove loose bricks at top of Music Hall.

The Brothers Four — Replace red light bulbs on top of Smoke-stack.

Joann Hrivnak — Change entrance standards so twice as many boys as girls will enter.

Nina Miller — Allow girls in Given to go to their mailboxes in Bermuda shorts.

Dale Stitt — Sorority suites.

Joe Szymkowiak — Standard uniforms for freshmen.

Nancy Frantz — Install refrigerators in Given Hall.

Andie Hall — Paint rusty tank at top of the "mountain."

Anonymous suggestions — Room service in all dorms; free intracampus telephone service; dog sleds in winter for girls in Given Hall.

President Tells of Campus Expansion

By 1970 Clarion State College campus will have a new face under the Comprehensive Plan for expansion proposed by Dr. James Gemmell, the president.

In addition to the new combined library and administration building, now under construction, a new women's dormitory will go up near the practice field. The building should begin next year.

Following this project, the field house-natorium-gymnasium will make its appearance on the athletic field upon the obtaining of the property on Payne Street. The athletic field will be relocated at the old fair grounds on the west end of town and Harvey Memorial Gym will be transformed into a Student Center.

The tennis courts will make way for the dining hall; Seminary Hall and Becht Hall will be replaced by classroom buildings, followed by the construction of a new Science Hall and Administration Building along Wood Street.

An auditorium and seven-story dormitories for men and women will be included among the various improvements of Clarion State College.

Class Officers for School Term Named

Officers of the classes have been elected by the student body for the 1961-62 school year. The freshman class has elected Darrell Sheraw, president; Denny Shuster, vice president; Eloise Hanby, secretary; Bob Quigley, treasurer, and Jane Bright, social representative. Dr. L. D. Moody is sponsor of the freshmen classes.

The sophomores have re-elected Glenn Plyler for president. Other officers are Frank Miller, vice president; Ruth Ann Land, secretary-treasurer, and Pat Black, social representative. Mr. Carl Caldwell sponsors the group.

Merle Stuchell is president of the junior class, while Tom Dessy is vice president; Nina Miller, secretary, and Phillip Smalley, treasurer. Mr. Charles J. Shontz is sponsor of the junior class.

The seniors have named Glenn Speedy as president; Timothy Welty, vice president; Donna Bert, secretary, and Nancy Lichko, treasurer.

"... And I'm not leaving this room until you tell me what you did with the new student teacher!"

Eagles Tie California

Approximately 2,000 Clarion State College fans sat stunned here Saturday afternoon as Bobby Burns snared a Ken Kulak pass and raced 21 yards into the end zone with but 50 seconds remaining in the game to gain for California State College, a 14-14 tie with western division leader Clarion.

Burns' tally climaxed a 79-yard California drive after Clarion had scored earlier in the quarter and seemed to have the game wrapped up. Bob McPherson added the PAT following Burns' TD.

Clarion took the lead early in the second period when Joe Urban plunged over from one yard out. Urban added the PAT with a placement.

The two teams contained each other until the fourth period when California tied the contest on a 12-yard run by Harry Ellsworth. Bob McPherson made it 7-7 as he split the uprights for the first PAT.

Clarion came right back and went ahead 14-7 when freshman Al Lefevre completed a screen pass to Bill Jackson, who scooted 21 yards for the score. Again Urban added the PAT with a placement.

Clarion fullback Sam Condeluci picked up 71 yards rushing and traveled 13 more following an interception of a California pass.

Bill Jackson scored his eighth TD of the season and now has accumulated 48 points.

The California defense rose to the occasion twice to stop Clarion drives, once on their own two-yard line in the first period and again on their own ten-yard line in the third period when they intercepted a Clarion pass.

Conference Defeat Erased

A combination of circumstances on and off the football field has elevated Clarion into first place in the Western Division of the State College Conference.

While unbeaten California was being ambushed by Slippery Rock, 45-21, Clarion posted its second league win, 17-6, over Indiana—Saturday.

Then the SCC's executive committee erased Clarion's lone conference defeat, upholding a Clarion protest that Edinboro used an ineligible player—Tackle Gene Chieffo—in its 13-12 victory over the Golden Eagles the first week of the season.

Chieffo was enrolled the fall semester of the 1959-60 school year at Wake Forest, then entered Edinboro this September. The five-member executive committee ruled unanimously that he is ineligible this season, but SCC President Thomas B. Crist of Shippensburg remarked:

"I would like to make it very clear that after all the evidence was in, Edinboro did not deliberately play an ineligible player."

This change of fortune throws the Western race into a three-team scramble among Clarion (4-1-1), Slippery Rock (4-2), and California (4-1-1).

Another Touchdown !!

CSC Defeats Arch Rivals

On October 21, the Clarion Golden Eagles played their annual grudge-rival game with the Indiana Indians. Clarion won the penalty-marred contest, 17-6. This win leaves Clarion undefeated in Western State College Conference ranks since Clarion was given the Edinboro game by forfeit. This leaves the team with a record of 4-1 for the season. The only loss was to West Chester State College.

Neither team was able to score in the first quarter, although Clarion came within five yards of a touchdown. The near score came when Lou Hutcherson threw a 52-yard pass to Al Porter who was stopped on the Indiana five-yard line. Indiana's defense halted Clarion and they took over on their own one-yard line.

Shortly after the start of the big second quarter, Joe Urban attempted a 27-yard field goal, but it was wide of its mark. Later in the quarter, Sam Condeluci recovered on Indiana's fumble on their own 23-yard line, giving Clarion the ball in scoring position again. Clarion picked up a first down and then Lou Hutcherson handed off to Ernie Widmar who went across for the touchdown from the five-yard line. Joe Urban's PAT was good. Clarion nearly scored again when Alex Murnyak, right guard of Clarion, picked up an Indiana fumble and went within the one-foot line of Indiana's goal line. But the half ended with a score of Clarion 7, Indiana 0. Less than 30 seconds had passed in the second half when a Myersky fumble was picked up by Indiana's Holtz who carried the ball up to the Clarion goal line but failed to go across. The Clarion defense stopped Indiana from scoring for three downs, but on the fourth down, Jerry Blank carried the ball across from the one-yard line for the TD. Pete Arthibald's PAT was blocked by Sonny Boley.

Mike Farraro, Clarion defensive guard, set up Clarion's second touchdown of the game. Late in the third quarter, Farraro blocked Vosovic's punt on the 42-yard line of Indiana, chased it back to their 14-yard line and recovered it.

At the start of the fourth quarter, Clarion had the ball first and ten, goal to go as a result of this blocked punt. A penalty against Indiana placed the ball on their own two-yard line. Lou Hutcherson handed off to Bill Jackson who went across for the TD. Joe Urban's PAT was good. Later in the quarter, Clarion again had the ball deep in Indiana territory. This time their drive was stopped on Indiana's five-yard line. Joe Urban attempted a field goal from the five-yard line which was good. The game ended with a score of Clarion 17, Indiana 6.

Coach Ernest Johnson stated after the game that the defensive team played a tremendous game, that he was proud of the pass defense, and that the boys would have to play better to beat California next week.

Sam Condeluci played his usual fine game and Bill Jackson picked up his sixth touchdown. Jackson, of Greensburg, Pa., is leading the district in total points.

A remembrance of the potential Halfback Ernie Widmar has come into being in his brief playing against Indiana. Ernie has been sidelined with a knee injury since the first half of the Grove City game. In the first half of the game against Indiana, he picked up a first down, scored a touchdown, and carried the ball six times for 26 yards. Late in the half, his knee was injured again and he will probably be sidelined for the rest of the season.

WAA Starts Intramurals

Although the Women's Athletic Association is inactive at present, starting November first volleyball intramurals will be in full swing. The schedule of games, posted on the bulletin boards of Becht and Given lounges, will be strictly followed. Please note the time of your game and notify your players of the necessity of being prompt. In order to keep the schedule running on time, promptness is imperative, as forfeits will result after a five-minute delay. In addition to exhibiting team work and good sportsmanship, the tournament will prove to be highly competitive. Both teams which ended in the playoffs, the Delta Zeta team and Beverly's Roe's team, will be competing to see if the Roe girls can retain the championship for two successive years.

W. A. A., based on an earned-point system, requires 25 points to become a member. Points can be gained by keeping time and score at the games. If you are interested in either of these, submit your name to Gail Jandrew or Joyce Fusca.

In the past months, the use of the trampoline was offered in cooperation with W. A. A. and women's physical education class. Ten points for W. A. A. were given to participants, plus the gym classes. If you missed this in the fall, watch for the trampoline classes in the spring. The charge for this will remain three dollars.

Clarion, West Chester Lead

JOHNSTOWN — West Chester for the fifth consecutive week, and Clarion for the second consecutive week, lead their respective sections of the Pennsylvania State Colleges Football Conference.

California held Clarion to a deadlock to move up to second place, 30 rating points behind the league leaders of the western division. The three-way race between Clarion, California, and Slippery Rock will not be determined until the final scheduled games on November 11.

In the eastern division, West Chester is highly favored to repeat by winning at Bloomsburg on Nov. 11. However, a Bloomsburg upset coupled with a Mansfield win over Kutztown and Bloomsburg win over Cheyney could give East Stroudsburg the championship on rating points. The standings:

Eagles Lose to West Chester by 51-20 Tally

A Passing Thought

PHI DELTA KAPPAN: We find ourselves, at mid-century, in a world that is like a drum: strike it anywhere and it resounds everywhere.

Dear Editor:

Did you ever take notice of the faces of people who are on campus on weekends? Usually these faces belong to the people who are the leaders of our college. They have an over-abundance of school spirit and they try to put a spark in many campus activities.

The school spirit has been low on our campus for several years. Do we want it to remain in this condition? We can change it now! The band has already made a contribution by composing cheers while playing for the games. New spark has been added to the cheering squad through the male cheerleaders. But we need more than this; we need the co-operation of all students attending Clarion!

Usually the stadium is filled for an important football game, but why can't it be filled for the pep rally the evening before? When basketball and wrestling fans fill the gymnasium, we notice the overcrowdedness but the building is usually empty for a record hop. Everyone complains about the Union, but is it ever filled on Saturday night? We are crowded in the dorms but nothing is so desolate as its halls on weekends. If more people would stay on campus weekends, a greater need would be shown for new buildings.

The general complaint of commuters and students who tread the homeward path is that there is nothing to do. I disagree! For example, let us take a recent weekend, the weekend of the Indiana game. On Friday night a pep rally was held. The band marched around campus, trying to instill students with school spirit. On Saturday, our team faced its biggest rival. Indiana's band was here and the performance was tremendous. The Clarion students cheered our team to victory. That evening a dance was held in the gym. Now if more people would have stayed on campus, all these activities would have been a success. Let's stay here when we play Slippery Rock at Venango Campus.

Many times sororities and fraternities plan weekend activities, whether social or business. Why can't clubs do the same thing? Remember to benefit from an activity is as good as the effort put into it. Let's put more spirit and drive into Clarion! We might be surprised as well as enjoy the results.

ANDREA HALL

Peace Corps Spokesman To Visit Clarion Campus

Mr. Daniel M. Berger, a Field Representative of the United States Peace Corps, is arriving at Clarion State College on Friday, November 10, 1961, for a one-day visit. His arrival coincides with a nationwide information program conducted by the Peace Corps to explain the purpose of the new agency and the many opportunities it offers for overseas service in the newly developing nations of the world.

Although he will be speaking primarily to students on the campus, Mr. Berger would like to meet all persons in the Clarion area who are interested in the work of the Peace Corps.

Clarion Cheerleading Squad Is Enlarged A Clue to Clubs

The Eagles' cheering squad has been increased by the addition of five new male cheerleaders: Rick Reeder, Tom Rahovan, Bill Cassidy, Marty Ruley, and Pat Demarte.

Approved by Dr. Gemmell, these boys cheered at the Homecoming game and were well received by the student body.

Their uniforms consist of Varsity C sweaters and white slacks. They have contributed new cheers along with routines which they do themselves or with the regular cheerleaders: Charlene Benninghoff, Jeanie Heinick, Janice Watson, and Janie Schal.

This year also brought a team of J. V. cheerleaders: Lorna Palmer, Sandy Spencer, Kathy Benish, and Andria Lancy. Their uniforms are blue and gold skirts with white vests and blouses. They will be leading cheers for the J. V. basketball team and the remainder of J. V. football games.

Congratulations to the whole squad on a job well done at our games.

On Tuesday, October 17, 1961, Adolph Poli called the first meeting of P. S. E. A. to order. After the installation of officers, new committees for membership, publicity, and entertainment were formed.

Mr. James Luther, the State Vice President of Student P. S. E. A., was introduced to the new members.

The meeting was followed by entertainment, ably presented by Dick DeSanto's Trio, which was enjoyed by all.

The IRC has had two meetings thus far this semester. At the first meeting, the time and place were designated for the proceeding meetings. At the end of the meeting, the new constitution of the IRC was presented to us by Mr. Joe Swab, committee chairman. The new constitution was tabled until the following meeting. At the second meeting the new constitution was read and discussed.

There will be a meeting of the executive and constitution revision committees at which time they will discuss and reword the constitution. At our next meeting on October 24, we will vote on adopting this new constitution. All members are urged to be present and all new members are welcomed.

The Student Christian Association has been very active and progressive during the first weeks of the new school term. Among the various activities already completed are an entry in the Homecoming Parade entitled "King Midas' Golden Touch"; a program presented by four Elders of a Mormon Church, and a highly successful hymn sing. In the near future, the S. C. A. has slated various social events and religious programs, including a hayride, a Bible study conference to be held in the Seneca Hill, and group discussions of conflicting issues. The programs scheduled are sure to be of interest to everyone; however, complete success of the programs depends upon the student's participation. With this thought in mind, S. C. A. invites you to attend the next meeting.

Circle K would like to thank Miss Carroll Byers, who represented the club in the annual Autumn Leaf Festival.

The men of Circle "K" have progressed rapidly in their new program for 1961 and 1962. In order to bolster these new and far-reaching programs, the club has initiated six new men into the organization. Our congratulations to Jerry Borden, Larry Bowser, Allen Richards, James Fryer, Larry Whipkey, and Ken Zamberlan.

Under the capable leadership of the president, Robert Avery, the club is branching out into activities which are not restricted to the C. S. C. campus. One project to be undertaken is the maintenance of a nature trail in Cook Forest. This project, under the direction of Dr. Predmore and Mr. Pierce, is the first which is not directly connected with the campus. All Circle "K" men hope to this new endeavor a complete success and, thus, contribute to the name of the college.

PINS, RINGS AND BELLS

We would like to congratulate the following people while announcing their pinnings, engagements, and weddings to the campus through the organization section of the Clarion Call:

This is a College-Community effort which again is being performed in conjunction with the drama department. The role of the mother will be sung by Annabella Minaric. Amahl will be sung by Stephen Chikovsky; the role of the page will be announced later. The Three Kings will be sung by James McLaughlin, Fulton Gallagher, and William McDonald. The shepherds and shepherdesses will be members of the A Cappella choir.

Following this the choir will embark on its annual spring tour of area churches and high schools. The music department plans to present at least one major musical production each year. This production will be an all-college endeavor.

Teresa Company of Dancers Coming

Teresa and her company of eight dancers, singers, and musicians will present a Spanish dance production on November 6 in the College Chapel at 8 and 9 p.m.

The young company will present something unique and exciting in the field of Spanish Dance, from the fiery Flamenco to the dramatic works of Garcia Lorca to the first Spanish dance production of Bach Inventions.

Tickets are available in the admissions office.

A New Typewriter

I bought a cheap typewriter and it works just fine, except on key doesn't seem to function properly. But it's only on key and shouldn't affect the operation of the whole machine, as on malfunctioning machine doesn't mean much. After all, on non-chattering student does not hamper a pep-rally or football game.

Psychology Classes To Tour Polk School

On December 5 the General Psychology classes of Clarion State College will take an educational field trip to Polk State School, Polk, Pa.

Before this trip, all of the professors of psychology will acquaint their students with some of the values that may accrue from the psychology field trip.

In the past, the psychology classes have been divided into small, controlled groups for the purpose of visiting classrooms, shops, and craft areas. The total group has been seated in the Polk Training School auditorium for some experiences, such as illustrated or exemplary lectures, and for panel discussions.

The exhibiting of illustrative cases has proven something of a shock. At the same time, this afforded dynamic understanding of stereotyped defective types.

Each student should be verbally conversant and psychically oriented to such diagnostic categories as the following:

Microcephalic, macrocephalic, endrocephalic, hydrocephalic, mongoloids, cretinism, acro-syndactylism, gargolism, rothman's syndrome, spastics, and onoxia.

This trip should contribute to the students' understanding of the trainable and subtrainable child. This trip is recommended for all except those who are highly suggestible or those who will experience motherhood in the near future.

The schedule for the trip is as follows:
What: Psychology Field Trip.
Where: Polk Training School.
Date: December 5.

Departure: 9:00-9:30 from the Chapel.

Return: 1:30.

Arrive there: 2:30-3:30.

Cost: One dollar per student.

Lunch: Boxed lunch from the dining hall.

The last date for paying money will be on the sixteenth of November. Sponsors of the psychology groups are Professors Tippin, Johnson, Smail, Skinner, and Dr. Penny.

Symphony from Baltimore Has Concert Here

The Baltimore Symphony, under the direction of Peter Herman Adler, presented a concert at the Clarion High School on November 15 to CSC students as part of the campus cultural program.

The concert included three selections — The Bartered Bride by Smetana, Iberia by Debussy, and Beethoven's Fifth Symphony.

Mr. Adler, the Czech-born conductor, made his American debut in 1940, conducting the New York Philharmonic Symphony. He became the permanent conductor of the Baltimore Symphony in 1959.

Herman Grossman, associate conductor, is known to American audiences for his many appearances with NBC opera Company and the New York Opera Company.

The Orchestra, which has 86 members, gears its programs to all levels of music appreciation, particularly emphasizing educational music programs.

Three CSC Seniors Receive Bowl Bids

Bill Jackson, Sam Condeluci, and Bob Cloherty, three of the senior members of this year's Clarion Football Squad, have received bids to play in the Erie Gem Bowl. The Gem Bowl consists of college seniors taken from several states competing geographically East against West.

The Gem Bowl is held in Erie, Pa., on Thanksgiving morning. One of the coaches this year is from Northwestern University and another is from Buffalo University. The players will be primarily from small colleges, but last year a few players from the Big Ten Conference participated in the Bowl. This is the first time in the history of the Clarion squad that its players have received bids to play in the Bowl game. The three players will leave on Monday, Nov. 20, to practice for the game.

The prospective Gem Bowl players were extremely valuable to the Golden Eagles in their near-championship competition this year in the Western Division of the State College Conference.

Bill Jackson, hailing from Greensburg, Pa., was the second total offense leader and the pass receiving leader for the Eagles this year. On total offense, Bill had 49 total plays and gained a total of 446 yards, scoring seven touchdowns. In pass receiving, he caught 14 passes for 313 yards and five touchdown passes. Not only was Bill good on offense this year, but he did well on defense

College - Community Stage "Crucible"

Puritans walked the streets of Clarion to remind the late shoppers of "The Crucible," Arthur Miller's gripping play of the Salem witch hunts, which will be presented by the Clarion College-Community Theater at the College Chapel on November 16, 17, 18, and 20 at 8:00 p.m. under the direction of Bob Copeland. The sober garb of the visiting Puritans is in sharp contrast to the passions developed on the stage as the able cast portrays the victims of a wild hysteria caused by the lies of little children that ends in the gallows death of nineteen innocent men and women.

Clarion students dominate the lead roles. Charles Belavic, junior, portrays John Proctor, while Toby Kisio, also a junior, plays the part of Abigail. Joyce Holley, Tituba, and Rose Marie Lamorella, Mercy Lewis, are both juniors. Liz Sibley, who plays Susannah, is a sophomore. Two freshmen are also in the play. Janie Bright is Mary Warren, and Sue Hartz is Betty Parris.

Reserve tickets are on sale at Haskell Furniture Store and Wein's Clothing Store.

Bill Melfi Stricken

Bill Melfi, a student football manager, was stricken with an influenza attack following the Shippenburg game on November 4. After a few days in the Brookville Hospital, he returned home where he is recuperating.

107 Students Visit Capital During Trip to Washington

Approximately 107 CSC students are taking a weekend trip to Washington, D. C., November 16-18.

Early Thursday morning the students boarded three Ritchey buses for their trip. Mount Vernon was the first stop of historical interest to be toured. That evening the students toured Washington by night and visited a wax museum.

The interest on Friday was centered upon the Capitol Building and its various activities. The students saw the processes of printing and engraving of paper money, the Supreme Court building, the tomb of the Unknown Soldier, and the Washington and Lincoln Monuments. The changing of the guard at Arlington Cemetery was also witnessed. The students also toured the Senate building and rode on the little railroad. Another of the most interesting places is the Smithsonian Museum. Friday evening was free for the students to do as they wished.

Saturday morning the students will leave Washington and tour the Gettysburg Battlefield. The electric map of the battle will be seen, accompanied by a lecture of the battle. After eating lunch at Gettysburg College, the students will continue to Clarion.

While in Washington, D. C., the students are staying in the Harrington Hotel, which is centrally located, and therefore convenient for the free Friday evening.

Sponsors for this tour are Dr. King, Mrs. Simpson, and Miss Yough.

The total cost of the trip was thirty dollars, which includes the hotel bill and travel insurance. Extra money had to be taken for food, souvenirs, and entertainment.

Quite similar to this trip will be the New York tour which will be taken in April 1962.

Editorial . . .

What are you going to think about over this Thanksgiving vacation? Will it be of that delicious dinner, of a break from the strain of school, or will it be of the numerous reasons you have for being thankful?

The majority of us, having been born in the United States, take the privilege of living under a democracy for granted. As we speak our opinions about religion, government, and our officials, we never consider the fact that we could be living under the terrifying laws of Communism. How fortunate we are! Instead of being persecuted we are free to say and believe what we want.

Another reason for giving thanks is for the education we are now receiving. Many young people in the world can not obtain the education they would like to have because of economic and political conditions existing in their countries.

There are many other reasons why we should be thankful. We have so many good things, such as freedom to worship as we please, friends, parents, and homes.

This Thanksgiving instead of concerning ourselves too much with unimportant matters, let us think about all the blessings we have.

The Exchange Post

This column is a new feature of the Clarion Call written to acquaint the students with the happenings at other colleges in the state. This is made possible by the exchange of collegiate newspapers.

Dear Editor:

I am writing this letter in reply to the editorial which was printed in the previous edition of the Call. Yes, as a CSC student, I realize the numerous things for which I have to be thankful. I realize I have taken the place of some less fortunate individuals who were not admitted. BUT, I believe in an unlimited cut system. Many courses, I feel, are, to speak very bluntly, a waste of time to attend—yes, my time and other's time. Why should I be forced to attend a class from which I get absolutely nothing? Some instructors simply follow the book for the course; certainly I am capable of doing this myself—why waste a good fifty minutes of my day, hearing the instructor do it for me? Other courses are merely a review of previous material. I'm afraid I'm too egotistical to regard cutting class as "a waste of the professor's time"; I feel my time is being wasted, because I could be spending that time doing my own reading. I believe I am saving time if I can successfully pass the course without attending every class.

True, there are many courses in which lectures and interest necessitate the student's attendance. Many, however, are null in both of these categories.

Clarion is finally beginning to progress. Why not install an unlimited or free cut system, similar to that of Pennsylvania State University?

Fall Fashions For the Coed

Fashion dictates a bright and bulky look for the coed's winter wardrobe.

Culottes, kilts, pleats, and the ever-popular straight skirt capture the campus scene in striking reds, blues, purples, and greens. Giving that collegiate metallic look, copper, gold chained, and linked belts enhance the already smart sports-wear.

Sweaters in the same rich tints assume a nonchalant appearance as tunic sweaters and more conservative dressmakers highlight the fashion world. The coed may choose a rainbow of fabric from the traditional shetland wool to the synthetic banlon.

Footwear is no longer limited to the universal pointed toe, but includes tapered and the squared toe. Now, the coed may select any outfit and may be assured of matching footwear.

Cold winters demand the furry touch and this year's coats display warmth in the fabric. Suede, pile, and combination wools with racoon, and man-made furs predominate.

Accessories put the final touch to our winter wardrobe. Bows, butterflies, and bands are just a hint to the head piece which captivate the millinery whirl. Fur, leopard, and knit blend with the fashion scheme which multi-colored gems add emphasis. Three strand necklaces, the one string opera pearl, the dangling necklace watch all give that dressed up look. Slim, dainty-leather gloves completes the sketch of the winter carnival of clothes.

Students Aided Through Dean

For the past few years Dr. King's office has been a source of information, guidance and counseling in relation to graduate work. Those students seeking graduate assistantships have been especially urged to come in and talk about possible opportunities. Students wishing general information about any graduate program have been invited to come in for conference. Other students, who are seeking knowledge concerning college teaching, are asked to discuss career opportunities.

Such service afforded by Dr. King's office is not intended to supplant the advisement of department heads. Rather, it is intended to supplement departmental information. In this light, graduate catalogues are loaned to students, and assistantship posters are brought to the student's attention.

Again, this year, Juniors and Seniors are asked to come for conference if they are interested in education beyond the B. A. Degree. It might be of interest to note that through this office about ten students, who would not have taken the step, were identified and aided toward scholarships in the last three years. Financial aid received ranged from the waiver of all fees to a teaching assistantship of $2,000 per year. It is expected that this column in the Call will be used to keep the student body informed about all such graduate opportunities.

The successful publication of cheap, popular newspapers in the United States began with the appearance of the New York Sun on September 3, 1833.

Senior Personalities

The position of class secretary is filled by popular Donna Berty. Hailing from Falls Creek, Donna is now student teaching in third and sixth grades at Brookville.

Although Donna is away from Clarion for a semester, she is anxiously awaiting her last semester on campus. When she returns, she will participate in Sigma Sigma Sigma sorority, S.C.A., choir, and intramurals. These activities involve the basic interests of Donna's, which are sports, people, and reading. When Donna was asked of her feelings toward graduation, she replied, "I'm looking forward to teaching, but I hate to leave my friends and the students at Clarion."

Greensburg's Tim Welty is holding the office of senior class vice president. Waiting to student teach second semester, Tim will put to use his social studies major and English minor.

In addition to being a brother of Sigma Tau Gamma fraternity, Tim is keenly interested in Clarion's athletic program. After playing basketball a year, he is now putting his sports-mindedness in action, as he is heading the intramural program. Although he enjoys "the lighter side of life,"

When quizzed about graduation, Tim chuckled and said, "I feel the most exciting part of my life has been spent at Clarion; therefore, I'm not the most anxious person in the world to graduate and go to work!"

Peace Corps Impresses Clarion

Approximately 175 students met in the Chapel on November 9 to hear Daniel Berger, a graduate from the University of Pittsburgh, talk about the Peace Corps.

Dr. Elbert Moses introduced Mr. Berger to the group. Mr. Berger started by explaining that the Peace Corps was not a new thing, but it is new "as a part of the government." Its main aim is to plan with other governments to help undeveloped countries.

The Peace Corps is looking for young unmarried Americans who have a keen interest in the program. An applicant must be eighteen years old and have skills in such fields as teaching, home economics, farming, mechanics, or electronics to qualify for the Corps.

After sending an application and taking tests for the Corps, the members are chosen by a committee for a specific job and then given two months of intense training at an American university for the work they are to do.

Many people shun the Peace Corps because they lack a foreign language. Mr. Berger stressed that an applicant should not let that frighten him. In many cases he does not need to speak another language. In other cases he is taught the language as part of his training.

A member of the Peace Corps works in a foreign country for two years and earns seventy-five dollars a month, which is terminated at the end of his service. While on the job, he receives living allowances which enable him to live as a person of that occupation in that country would. The reason for this is that he will be working and living with the average people of the country, not the elite.

The two goals of the Peace Corps are:

1. To make sure the people who need its help and skill receive it, and
2. To permit the masses of people in underdeveloped countries to work with, know, and like the average American.

If you are interested in joining the Corps, application blanks and more information can be obtained through Dr. Moses.

"Are You SURE This Is Included in the Creative Activities Program?"

Clarion Loses Last Fray 20-13

The hopes of the Clarion Golden Eagles for the Western Division Crown faded Saturday, November 11, as they went down in defeat to Slippery Rock State College, 20-13. Saturday's game was played at the Mitchell Avenue Field in Oil City before an overflowing crowd of nearly 4,500 spectators.

The win over Clarion by Slippery Rock gave the Rockets the State College's Western Division Crown, and a chance to try their luck against West Chester State College, who is the Eastern Division Champion. Clarion had led the conference most of the season and needed only to tie Slippery Rock to clinch the crown.

The championship tilt got off to a fast start as Clarion scored early in the first period. They started the drive on their own 42-yard line, but were almost stopped on Slippery Rock's 22-yard line. They were faced with a fourth and one-yard situation and were undecided as to try a field goal or not. But, like many times during the season, the Eagles tried for the yardage and made it. The drive was climaxed by a 15-yard touchdown pass thrown by Lou Hutcherson to Steve Predjina. Joe Urban's PAT attempt was wide of its mark.

Slippery Rock came right back at the Eagles with a drive from their own 20-yard line which ended in a nine-yard touchdown pass to Jim McElhaney thrown by Tony Nunes. Frank Heinicke attempted the extra point but it was no good.

Clarion scored again early in the second period when Joe Urban went crashing in from the 13-yard line. Joe Urban's first PAT was no good, but Slippery Rock received a penalty, giving him a second try. On the second attempt it was good, which was the last scoring done in the first half. Clarion had a drive stopped on Slippery Rock's 23-yard line, from where Joe Urban attempted a field goal, but it was short of its mark. Slippery Rock had a long drive late in the half which was stopped on Clarion's nine-yard line when Sonny Boley picked up a fumble by Slippery Rock's Kirkland. The first half ended with a score of Clarion, 13, Slippery Rock, 6.

In the second half Clarion was unable to score, while Slippery Rock scored twice. On both scoring drives they received the ball as a result of Clarion fumbles. In the third quarter they received the ball on Clarion's own 47-yard line when Sam Beason recovered Lou Hutcherson's fumble. They scored as a result of a 15-yard touchdown pass thrown by Tony Nunes to Jim McElhaney. Frank Heinicke made the successful PAT.

During the fourth period of play, a Clarion drive was stopped on the Rocket's 17-yard line when Don Dunaway recovered Joe Urban's fumble. From the 17-yard line the Rockets drove all the way to score. Bob Belich took the ball across from the three-yard line. Don Dunaway kicked the extra point. Clarion gained possession of the ball late in the game but was unable to score against the fired-up Slippery Rock team.

Eagles Edge Shippensburg In Final Seconds of Grid Play

The first-place Clarion Golden Eagles traveled to Herges field, the home of the Shippensburg Red Raiders, on Saturday, November 4, and returned still leading the Western Conference as a result of their 28-26 victory over Shippensburg. Clarion now has a conference record of four wins, one tie, and has only to beat Slippery Rock next Saturday, at Oil City, to clinch the Western Conference Crown. The Shippensburg game was a see-saw battle played before a very excited crowd of nearly 3,000 people.

During the first quarter, Clarion failed to capitalize on four fumbles by the Red Raiders, and neither team was able to score. Shortly after the start of the second quarter, Shippensburg scored when Harold Kinsey caught a 12-yard touchdown throw by Harold Hunter. Hunter's PAT attempt was no good.

In the second quarter, junior quarterback Lou Hutcherson came in to replace freshman quarterback Al Lefevre who had started the game. It seemed that Hutcherson was the spark needed to get Clarion's offense moving. The Clarion offense was halted at the 12-yard line of Shippensburg and faced with a fourth and four situation. Clarion took the gamble and Hutcherson completed a 12-yard touchdown pass to Steve Predjina. Joe Urban put Clarion in front, 7-6, with his successful PAT attempt.

On the following kickoff to Shippensburg, freshman Nicholas Vorkapich returned it 80 yards for the touchdown. Harold Hunter's PAT attempt was no good. With one minute to go in the first half, Clarion again took the lead when Lou Hutcherson ran 17 yards for the touchdown. Joe Urban's PAT attempt was good, making the halftime score 14-13.

In the third quarter, Shippensburg took the lead when halfback Bill Lewis took the ball across from the six-yard line. Hunter's

PAT attempt was good. From their own 44-yard line Shippensburg again drove deep into Clarion territory to the seven-yard line. Lowell Staley stopped them from scoring when he broke up a pass play for a fourth and eight situation, and the third quarter ended with a score of: Shippensburg 20, Clarion 14.

Shortly after the start of the fourth period, Lou Hutcherson again scored on a 22 yard touchdown run. Joe Urban's PAT attempt was good. Clarion's lead was shortlived, as Bill Lewis of Shippensburg ran 68 yards for a touchdown on the first play following the kickoff. Harold Hunter's PAT was no good.

Clarion then started a drive on their own six-yard line which was climaxed with a one-yard plunge by Lou Hutcherson for the score. Joe Urban made his PAT attempt. Hutcherson's last touchdown was made with 53 seconds to go in the game. The final score was Clarion 23, Shippensburg 26.

Lou Hutcherson, Joe Urban, and Steve Predjina played outstanding offensive ball for Clarion. Hutcherson picked up 113 yards on the ground, completed 11 out of 16 passes for 198 yards and he made three touchdowns. Steve Predjina ran the ball nine times for 21 yards, caught eight passes for 154 yards, made seven first downs, and made a touchdown. Joe Urban made four extra points out of four attempts and carried the ball twice for two yards.

Although three of this year's nine graduating seniors received bids to the Gem Bowl, this does not suggest that the other six seniors were not as valuable or as important to the 1961 Golden Eagle squad. On the contrary, these six players did just as much as anyone else on the team to aid the Eagles in their near-championship drive.

Earl "Sonny" Boley plays right guard and is from Oakmont. He has opened up plenty of holes in the right side of the line this year, plus playing defense all season. Earl was one of the captains of the team this year.

Rudy Ventresca is from Scotland and had a great year at his starting offensive center position. Last year he was named to Slippery Rock's All-Opponent team in addition to being selected to the All-District team.

Bill Smoker is also from Scotland and was the starting offensive left guard. Bill had his finest season this year, being superb as a blocker.

Jack Loya from Franklin Boro was hampered by a shoulder injury during the first half of the season. But because of his desire and spirit he became a valuable asset on defense and offense during the latter part of the season.

Larry Schreckengost, a native of Ford City, was primarily a defensive center this year, sometimes spelling Ventresca at offensive center. Larry played some great games this year and was especially effective on pass protection for our quarterbacks.

Ernie Widmar is from United Joint and was sorely missed by the Clarion squad this year. Ernie was injured in the Grove City game and saw no more action except in the Indiana game when he was injured again. At the start of the season he was the starting left halfback. Many of the sports fans of the area will remember Ernie for his tremendous broken-field running.

Varsity Rifle Team Increases Activities

Last year the Varsity "C" club and the college recognized the rifle team as a varsity sport. This brought an end to coaches Galen Ober and Charles Flack's long struggle for recognition of the rifle team.

The rifle team is composed of ten men who have shot the ten highest scores in the rifle club. The rifle club now has thirty-eight members, which is a large increase over last year's club. The rifle club meets every Tuesday and Thursday in their range in the basement of Davis Hall.

The rifle team has six lettermen back from last year's team. They are Bill Kiser, Jeff Ellis, Church Gibson, Dave Selway, Dick Fair, and John Blake. Other members of the team are Brooks Breaky, Dave Mensch, Bob Connor, and Lee Bloese. The team's members can be replaced by any club member who can shoot a higher score in practice.

The Clarion rifle team lost its first match of the season to Grove City College on October 17 on the Clarion range. The final score was Grove City 1392 and Clarion 1261. Their next match is against Allegheny in Meadville, Pa.

The rifle team is operating under the handicap of using inferior and obsolete equipment. The rifle team and the rifle club are forced to share the same rifles and equipment. The team desperately needs five rifles for their own use, leaving the older models for club use.

SOCIAL CONTACT

By ROUSSEAU

Many students were approached recently and asked to define the word JERBOA. Most couldn't give any answer, but there were several who could. But even those who "knew" the meaning had probably never heard of the word.

SANDY CHAPMAN — Balboa's twin brother.

SALLY GIBB — A long, fat, wild snake.

OZZ SHIREY — Something that was on the Constitution test.

SALLY ABER — A necktie.

ELEANOR KOZIER — A disease.

PAUL PIFER — This is a type of ship.

DONNA MARTINELLI — An African tribesman.

PETE GERELUK — Something to eat.

JOANN HRIVNAK — Slovak dish of noodles.

GWYNN FREY — A weapon?

DICK DeSANTIS — Cross between a juice harp and a bass viola.

POLLY ANN LESHOCK — A kind of pizza.

SCOTT WENTZEL — A river.

SANDY STARR — A new dance?

In case you are wondering just what a jerboa is, here is Webster's answer: Jerboa—a small mammal which resembles a jumping mouse.

BRIGHT BOY . . .

You Call That a Demonstration Speech?

Dear Parents,

Just a note to say everything is great here—sure am glad I decided to come to school here. The fellows and I study quite a bit, but we do spare some time to have some swinging times. My studies seem to be satisfactory, as I didn't get any below grades. Yes, the Stevens seem to have a scholar in the relationship. Say, I better close and study some. See ya in a couple of weeks.

Forgot to mention it, but could you spare some cash?

Clarion Offers European Tour

Clarion Flying College is planning the educational tour supreme as the basis of its Foreign Study Program in the summer of 1962. The countries definitely in the itinerary are Portugal, Spain, France, Italy, Austria, Switzerland, Germany, Holland, Finland, Denmark, Sweden, England, and Scotland. It is expected that the names of two countries will be announced later as a surprise if the mileage and time will permit their inclusion.

The principles upon which the educational tour are built are a group safety, individual health, happiness, knowledge, and comfort. Members of the group are taught how and where to buy representative products of each country. Opportunities are provided for photography, recreation, religious hours, and further field trip extensions.

The tour may be extended to include the Holy Land. This would be taken after the regular summer tour is completed in Europe. Three weeks will be taken to tour Egypt, the Near East, Turkey and Greece.

A Clue to Clubs

The Clarion Call welcomes the newest organization, the Chess Club.

At present, the Chess Club is in the process of becoming a legally constituted body. Miss Charmaine Forshee has been appointed as chairman of the Constitution Committee composed of five other club members in addition to the chairman. Mr. Roger Davis and Mr. John Foster have been appointed as temporary co-chairmen.

The club will meet weekly in Room 311, Seminary Hall. Its main purpose is to further campus interest in playing chess. The long range goals include creating a chess team to participate in competition with other chess teams.

The club will welcome plays of any strength and will be glad to teach the game to beginners.

Interested people can come to the meeting or contact Mr. J. Liebman in Room 311 A for further information.

The monthly meeting of P. S. E. A. was cancelled due to the district election.

Because all the magazines were delivered in bulk, it will be necessary for all members to come to the next meeting in order to receive the issues of N. E. A. and P. S. E. A. In the near future the magazines will be mailed directly.

National Education Week was observed this month from November 6 through November 11.

At a recent meeting Newman Club was honored to have as their guest speaker, Monsignor Nash, President of Gannon College.

On October 25, new members of the Newman Club were initiated in the Immaculate Conception Gym with Benediction held in the church. The initiation was in the form of a record hop followed by refreshments.

The newly established Newman Club football team has had a very successful start by winning two out of three games.

The Clarion-Slippery Rock football game at Oil City, November 11, ended the performances of the season for the Clarion State College Marching Band. The band was successful in all of its activities throughout the marching season and wishes to thank the student body for their enthusiasm that helped support it. The applause heard from the viewers whenever the Marching Band entered the football field, stands, or marched around campus or town aroused good feeling in all the band members.

Many of the Marching Band members did not end their band activities when the marching season terminated but have joined the Concert Band for the remainder of the school year. The Concert Band is also under the direction of Mr. Stanley F. Michalski, Jr. and now has a sixty-five membership. It is hoped that by January the band will grow to a seventy-piece unit which will be the largest Concert Band in the history of Clarion State College.

Along with practicing in Marching and Concert Band, several members are involved in the musical part of "Amahl and Night Visitors" that is being presented by the Music Department and College-Community Players.

Another band organization is the College Dance Band that is currently rehearsing for dances and events associated with college functions. Members of this organization are: Joseph De Felice, David Pisani, Bill Anderson, John Howard, and David Magaro playing saxophones; Dick Harmon, Carl Josephs, Patty Cyphert, Jim Luther, Jack Schreckengost, David Kauffman, Jim Hecker compose the brass section; rhythm instruments are played by Janet Rishel, Jack Winger, and Denton Bond; Terry Stittler performs on the guitar.

The COLLEGE PLAYERS announce that its new officers will be installed at its next regular meeting to be held November 29 in the Chapel at 8:00 p.m. Robert Avery is the new president. His fellow officers are: vice president, Frank Buffington; secretary, Georgianna Branton; treasurer, Eileen Mangini; property manager, Mary Ann Kovaly, and historian, Carol Boris.

A program consisting of several short one-act plays will be given by Alpha Psi Omega.

This year the number of individuals in W. A. A. intramurals increased considerably. Using volleyball, alone, as an example, the number of players this year doubled that of last. Fifteen teams, averaging twelve girls each, are scheduled for games in volleyball intramurals. Each team has a captain that must inform the players of all games, and be responsible for having a complete team at the scheduled time of play; these fifteen girls are: Eileen Wagner, Alice Brennenman, Gail Andrew, Jan Barbero, Doc Minarcin, Carol Ogg, Kathy Jones, Marilyn Rose, Jan Rugh, Lois Chery, Lana Carpenter, Carry Danvar, Peggy McKee, Diane Rich, and Sandy Querio.

The volleyball games started on Thursday evening, November 9, under the management of Gail Andrew. Three games are played a night on Mondays and Thursdays, so the volleyball season for W. A. A. will be finished by Christmas vacation.

With more girls and teams participating in intramurals this year the competition is greater, so let's go, girls, and work for that championship!

Music, Drama Departments Present Menotti's 'Amahl'

The Music Department and College-Community Theatre will present Gian Carlo Menotti's one act opera "Amahl and the Night Visitors" on December 14, 15, and 16 in the College Chapel.

In the role of Amahl is Steven Chikowski, an eighth grade student at CJHS, who performed in the College Community production last Christmas. Annabella Minarcin, a member of the A Cappella Choir and also a choir soloist, plays the role of Amahl's mother, Anna. The performance of last year's performance. The parts of the three kinds are filled by James McLaughlin, as Kasper; William MacDonald, as Melchior, and Fulton Gallagher, as Balthazar. James McLaughlin is a member of the A Cappella Choir and a choir soloist. William MacDonald is a music professor and college choir director at CSC, while Fulton Gallagher is music director at CHS.

Bob Case, who is playing his first major role in a college production, is also a member of the A Cappella Choir. Bob plays the role of a page.

The story is a simple one, merely an incident which takes place during the journey by the Three Kings to the scene of the Nativity. On their journey they come upon an aged and weathered shepherd's hut, in which live Amahl, a poor crippled boy, and his mother. Tired from their traveling, the Three Kings inquire as to whether they might rest awhile and warm themselves before continuing their search for the Holy Child.

They are received graciously by the poverty-stricken widow, who sends Amahl to call the other shepherds and ask them to bring whatever they have in their houses, as she has nothing of offer her guests. Then enter about 25 shepherds and shepherdesses, sung by members of the A Cappella Choir. Their humble gifts are willingly given to the Kings, who thank them and bid them goodnight, as they have little time to rest and must soon resume their journey.

When the Kings have fallen asleep, the mother sings of her poverty, and for the love of her son, attempts to steal some of the gold to be given to the Child. Here is found the climax of the story, in which the page seizes the would-be thief, and arouses the Three Kings. Sympathetically, they tell her to keep the gold, as the new-born King needs no gold to build his kingdom. As the Kings turn to leave, the mother gives back the gold, saying that if she weren't so poor she would send him a gift of her own. Here Amahl begs her to let him send his crutch to the Child, and there follows a miraculous moment, in which the boy lifts the crutch and walks without help for the first time in his life. Thrilled and amazed by the miracle, Amahl begs his mother to allow him to go with the Kings and take the crutch to the Child himself. She consents, realizing he should give thanks to Him himself. The Kings, page, and Amahl start out on their journey, knowing the Star will guide them to the Blessed Place. On this note of joy, the opera is ended.

The twenty-one piece orchestra will be conducted by Edward Roncone; William MacDonald will prepare the cast and chorus, and Bob Copeland will stage the opera. Make this presentation a must on your agenda for the Christmas season.

Students Visit Polk School

The psychology department consisting of Dr. Penny, Dr. Small, and Professors Skinner, Johnson, and Tippen, and three hundred and thirty-five students took a trip to Polk State School on Tuesday, December 5.

The individual groups visited the hospitals, handicraft shops, the colonies and the different divisions for particular type cases in both men and women. After the tours were completed, a seminar in which the students and professors met with Dr. Varva, head of the psychological services at Polk, was held. Dr. Varva and his assistants showed case studies of typical individuals who were affected by some of the mental defects characteristic of the school.

The students of the college made a financial contribution to the recreation and entertainment department of the Polk Training School.

CSC Christmas Festivities Dominate Campus Scene

On Monday, December 18, the annual Christmas Formal will be held in Harvey Gymnasium from 8:30 to 11:30. All women will have one o'clocks for the event. The dance's theme "Fantasy in Frost" will be carried through by the use of blue and white. The ceiling will be done with angel hair and stars, and on the far wall, a mural with trees, snow-covered benches, and a twinkling lights covered with angel hair will suggest a snowy outdoor theme. The lighting will also add to the wintry atmosphere. Crepe paper will separate the bleachers from the rest of the gym.

Tommy Carlyn's Pittsburgh band will provide the dance music. Programs will be distributed which will have Jack Frost on the cover and which were designed by Jim Fryer.

The dance is sponsored by the Junior Class. Merle Stutchell, Junior Class President, deserves most of the credit for the work which has gone into planning the program.

To add to the enjoyment of the students, the Christmas dinner will be served in the dining hall before the dance, during family style dinner.

To commemorate the Christmas season in the dormitories, the girls in Egbert, Becht and Given Halls have held a Christmas party. To make the dorms look more like Christmas, the girls have put decorations on the windows and the doors. Since the decorating was done on a competitive basis, each girl worked hard to make her decoration look the best and the most original.

On Friday, December 8, the girls decorated the Christmas trees in the lounges. As the trees were being decorated, songs of yuletide were sung, and the spirit of Christmas was ushered in with the joyous strains of song.

On Monday, December 11, two professors from the art department, Mr. Baptist and Mr. Pierce, judged the windows. Each floor of Becht and Given Halls had one winner and one honorable mention. In Egbert Hall there was one winner and one honorable mention. Pictures were taken of the winning decorations. The winners were — Egbert Hall, first prize: Carolyn Blose, Aileen Chiodo, and Linda Luca. Honorable mention: Becky Clever, Marlene DeBlasio, and Sandy Stroble.

On first floor in Becht Hall — winners of first prize: Linda DeJoseph, Sue Hartz, and Rita Dope-rak. Honorable mention: Marilyn Ivill and Grace Morton. Circle K Resumes Restoration of Trails

Circle "K" president, Robert Avery, recently announced that the Circle "K" Club has assumed the restoration and maintenance of a nature trail in Cook Forest State Park.

This nature trail was previously sustained by the now dissolved Outdoor Club of Clarion State College.

It is through the continuous efforts of Circle "K" to establish better relationships between Clarion State College students and the general public that this project is a reality. It is the hope of every Circle "K" man that both the students and the public shall take full advantage of the efforts set forth.

A Peek at Greeks

By Marjorie Gilmore and Andrea Hall

The sororities and fraternities should be thinking about the coming holidays, Thanksgiving and Christmas. This year, why not initiate good will projects which would help the under-privileged or ill people of the Clarion community? A small Thanksgiving basket donated to the poor or some Christmas cards sent to the district hospital shut-ins are truly appreciated by those in the receiving.

This year let's share our prosperity with others!

The Interfraternity Council had its first meeting on October 17 in Dr. Rishel's office. This year the Council's membership consists of the following representatives:

Theta Chi—Bob Schlemmer, Ronald Gardner; Phi Sigma Epsilon—Roy Buterbaugh, Bob Lynch; Sigma Tau Gamma—Glenn Plyler, Carl McManamy; Alpha Gamma Phi—William Jackson, Frank Miller.

This year the Council is under the direction of the Dean of Students, Dr. Rishel. Dr. Rishel has shown a very keen interest in the fraternities and he hopes to make the I. F. C. a strong, functioning organization.

So far this year, the Council has scheduled the dates for the fraternities' rush parties and has regulated the rushing of new men.

One of the new regulations made this year by I. F. C. is the stipulation that all pledges have a 75 quality point average.

The members of I. F. C. hope that with the co-operation of the member fraternities and students, they will be able to add a few interesting activities to the social calendar.

The officers of the I. F. C. are:

President—Scott Logan

Vice President—Bob Schlemmer

Secretary—Frank Miller

The Beta Chi Upsilon Sorority wishes to thank its sponsor, Miss Roxana Irwin, for the dinner she gave Beta Chi and Sigma Sigma Sororities. It was held on October 23 at Johnny Garneau's Smorgasbord. Miss Irwin received a hand-made crystal candy dish as a token of appreciation from both sororities.

JoAnne Connors, Carolyn Hartman, and Sandra Starr were pledged on October 24. After Thanksgiving vacation, the Betas will begin the sale of Christmas figurines and ornaments. Anyone planning to purchase some, contact any member.

Delta Zeta Sorority is busy making arrangements for their money-making project. Pink roses are extended to "Toby" Kisio, who has been selected to play the lead in "The Crucible."

Sigma Delta Phi Sorority held a "big sister" party for their pledges recently at the Clarion Restaurant. The five pledges are busy with their duties. They will be initiated December 4. We wish everyone at C.S.C. a Happy Thanksgiving.

Sigma Sigma Sigma Sorority is now selling Christmas Cards for its Robbie Page Memorial Hospital in North Carolina. They are also selling wrapping paper, all-occasion cards, and personalized cards for their national service project.

Good luck to the volleyball team which won its first game. Pledges are busy finishing their projects and they hope to be initiated by the next edition of the Call.

Sigma Tau Gamma held their rush party on Wednesday, November 1, at the fraternity house. Entertainment by Ted Kulas, Bob Avery, Neil Shively, Chuck Gillette, and Dr. Still highlighted the evening.

The fraternity held a beatnik party on Saturday, October 21, at the house. Thanks to Mr. and Nemmer and Dr. Still for chaperoning the party. Bob Avery read poetry and the furniture was removed to complete the atmosphere.

Congratulations to the football team on a good year! Sam Condeluci, a captain, Joe Berg, Larry Schrengost, and Al Porter are Sig Taus playing this year. Congratulations also to Paul Chantrey, Bob Avery, and Glenn Speedy. They were recently initiated into Phi Sigma Pi, National Honorary Fraternity.

On Saturday evening, October 28, 1961, Theta Chi National Fraternity held a closed masquerade party and dance at the Ross Memorial for the brothers of the chapter and their guests. Prizes were awarded for the best costumes and for other contests held during the course of the evening. Co-chairmen in charge of arrangements were James Baughman and Jerry Drayer.

The first semester rush party of Epsilon Xi Chapter was held on Tuesday evening, October 31, at the Ross Memorial. Following a short program of entertainment, a social evening was held to acquaint the brothers with the prospective new members. Tom Murray and James Hutchison were in charge of the entertainment and the refreshments respectively.

The men of Theta Chi are happy to have pledged Larry Ashbaugh, Denton Bond, James Kerr, Richard Malcarne, John Rolls, John Sexton, Gorman Shaffer, Larry Shoup, and Kenneth Zamberlan to our organization.

Editorially Speaking

On the twenty-fifth day of December many years ago, an inconvenient birth occurred. The birth of Jesus came at a time when people were weary and under strain. Mary made the long trip to Bethlehem, the wise men left their duties to trust their travel to a star, and the shepherds left their sheep and journeyed to see the Baby Jesus. All these things happened, not because they were the desires of those involved, but because they were the desires of God.

Christmastime is here again and with it comes its inconveniences. Following the age-old traditions such as decorating a tree, making cookies, baking a Christmas dinner, and even going to church is inconvenient for all of us. But let us pray that this Christmas day, and in the days and years following, God will be with us to help us do the inconvenient for Jesus' sake.

Dear Editor:

The new ruling that bans overnight guests in the dormitories has created more problems than it has solved. If a survey were to be taken among the dormitory students, those who this ruling affects directly, the results would prove that this new policy is considered unfair.

The first and most important problem this issue presents is that future college students are unable to visit Clarion for an adequate length of time, and therefore lack the opportunity to become acquainted with our campus. Only by showing our hospitality, can we impress and encourage prospective students.

Guests for formal dances and other social affairs now have the added burden of finding quarters in the town during their weekend visits. This is also an added expense which would not be quite so costly if the previous dormitory provisions were still available.

As for the lack of space, let's not kid ourselves; students go home every weekend on this campus. There are always a few vacant beds in the dormitories. As long as the student is able to secure a room for his guest, there should be no reason for his reservation to be rejected.

This ruling banning overnight guests should be re-evaluated and stricken from the rules.

A Dormitory Student

Outspoken

By EILEEN MANGINI

To complete my gift list, one more package I have to wrap, But I wonder how I can do this with just a single flap, To be rolled beneath while I hold erect the heavy chalk. If I happen to sway it more left than right, I'll sulk Over Yuletide with a somewhat swollen finger by the crushing blow—

Oh, where to put the colored bow? Around the neck, middle or far below? Or shall I slide it beneath, while I lift one side, then another, To have the whole slightly slab come down to batter the brother Of the victim mentioned before? When I consider how my roommate's time is spent, No longer decoration's woes can I lament, For melancholy deserves a gift which causes it to vanish Promptly, without harm to what some call my wounds outlandish.

Then, with gift in hand and roommate's burst of cheer I trust, I rush to spread Christmas joy with Alfred E. Neuman, a bust— (Before a reprimand I get, excuse this small regret, My little finger did not bust, it broke!)

PBA Speaker Visits Group

Mr. Quay, a field representative of the Pennsylvania Association for the Blind, spent a brief visit with the psychology classes on November 28, enroute to a convention in Chicago.

During his visit Dr. Quay spoke with the psychology students about the implications of visual deficiency and mal-functioning, concerning the behavior of pupils in the classroom.

He said that it was probably not common knowledge that the farsighted child frequently is a behavior problem. As a result of being farsighted, manifestations of farsightedness are expressed by the child showing an apparent disinterest in classroom work. His best adjustment is made in outside physical activities. The result of inability to see at near points causes the child to become disinterested in school work, which is apparent from the overt behavior of throwing paper wads, spitballs, and sometimes other objects. The best work of a farsighted child is done when he is asked to do an assignment on the blackboard.

Mr. Quay further explained to the group that the nearsighted child is in danger of losing his eyesight faster than the farsighted child. He pointed out that one of the serious dangers was that of muscular imbalance between the eyes. This results in loss of eyesight, if not corrected in the receptive eye. This imbalance results from the inability to fuse two images and it causes headaches and general blurriness of vision until one eye is suppressed to the point of monocular vision. As a result of monocular vision the child lacks depth perception.

It was of particular interest to the students that Mr. Quay brought to their attention the increase in the number of blind and seriously visual deficient children who are now being taught in regular classrooms. Approximately 25 percent of the handicapped children are being taught by regular classroom teachers. It is expected that this percentage will gradually increase.

Don't Read This Story

So, you just couldn't stop with the headline! It's true, you know, this column has nothing in it worth reading.

Why are you still reading? You should have started on the third page by this time. Stop!! Go no further.

You're too curious. That's your whole problem. Why not show that you have a little will power and start reading another page? It will be more interesting than this. Just think how much more educated you will be if you read the rest of the paper and quit wasting your time plowing through this piece of nothing.

Boy! You sure don't have any will power, do you?

I can't understand what is so appealing about this next line, but I suppose you'll read it anyway.

If you want to know the last basketball score—I can't tell you what it is; this isn't the sports section. Why don't you go on to the next page right now?

Well, here you are almost at the end, and what have you learned? Nothing. You act as if you're in a trance.

You're probably curious enough to read these last words, aren't you?

Senior Personalities

Rankin's Charlie Belavie is a well-known person on Clarion's campus. One need not be told his main interests center around the theater, jazz and classical music, and art. This year, Charlie played the lead roles of both campus productions—"John Brown's Body" and "The Crucible." In the past three years, he's played parts in such productions as "Macbeth," "Girl of the Golden West," and "The Sand Box," just to name a few. Altogether, he's acted in nine plays in his college career.

In addition to this, Charlie, a biology major and English minor, finds time to be a brother of Alpha Gamma Phi and the honorary dramatic fraternity, Alpha Psi Omega. He is also serving on the Board of Directors of the College-Community Theatre.

Last summer found Charlie employed by Allegheny County on road maintenance. When asked if he's anxious to graduate, he replied, "Sort of."

This past summer found Barb Terrill employing her English major, as she proof read for the Oil City Derrick and New Herold. She is best known on campus for her excellent performances in such productions as "John Brown's Body," "Macbeth," "Time Limit," and "Papa Is All." In addition to the leading roles in these plays, she played bit parts in "Our Town," and "The Taming of the Shrew."

Although Barb's interest center primarily around the field of drama, she enjoys swimming and horse back riding. On campus, she is a member of Alpha Psi Omega and the College Players.

Is she anxious to graduate? "When I think of being graduated, I feel a certain sadness—there is so much that must be put away in the dim corner called memory, yet I can't help but feel an eagerness to see what's ahead, to see what tomorrow holds."

Students Comment on Concert

Dick Reefer — "This was the most exciting time I think we ever had. When someone mentioned concert to me, I thought E-gads, not one of those boring long-hair things. I don't know just how to put that kind of enjoyment in words, but to say I enjoyed it very much."

James Hecker — "I was waiting for the concert to begin and to hear the sound of a symphony. When I heard the first note I knew that it was what I hoped it would be and that I would enjoy it very much. The first song was fabulous."

A. Aaron — "Clarion should definitely have more concerts. For some people last night was the first time they had ever been to a concert."

Lorna Palmer — "I think the best part of all was that I left the auditorium with questions. This is good because it stimulated my interest for knowing more."

Ken Rigby — "Sitting in the very uncomfortable bleachers last night I heard something very relaxing. It almost made me forget about the uncomfortable seats."

Bill Huber — "Preparation for the concert in class helped me enjoy the concert; in fact, without it, I possibly might not have enjoyed it at all."

Carole Smith — "This was my first concert but I enjoyed it and intend to hear many more. I have already purchased the Beethoven Fifth Symphony since I heard it in class."

Mary McDunn — "I would venture to say that any student having the slightest knowledge of the construction of a composition and the basic fundamentals of music must have had a better understanding of the selections placed before them."

Joseph Sarbo — "Now that I've tasted a tiny bit of concert music and understand some of it, I know I could definitely enjoy more entertainment of this type."

"I'm glad you made the team, Edgar, but MUST you practice at the Christmas dance?"

Clarion Bolts California in 82-70 Victory

The Clarion Golden Eagles opened their 1961-62 basketball season on Friday, December 1, by traveling to Herron Hall, the home of the California Vulcans. The Clarion team returned home with an important win over California by a score of 82-70. The game was a State College League game and the opening game for both teams. It was also the first game for John Joy as head basketball coach at Clarion State College.

For most of the first period of play Clarion trailed by as much as 12 points, but they came storming back in the second period with a full court press which completely rattled the California team. The Vulcans could not break the press and threw the ball away time after time. Clarion capitalized on their bad passes and with 4:17 to go in the first half, Chuck Snell put the Eagles ahead 32-30 with a long field goal. The Vulcans could not come back as the Eagles kept up their persistent tight defense while also continuing to score. The first half ended exactly opposite to the way it began, with Clarion having a 12-point lead over California by a score of 46-34.

The second half was completely dominated by the Eagles, who never slowed their game up while California showed signs of extreme fatigue which affected their shooting a great deal. The final score of the game was Clarion 82, California 70.

The Clarion team was paced by their veteran court ace, Chuck Snell, who was high scorer of the game with 30 points. Art Artis and Gene McDonald were high for California with 17 points apiece. The main factor in the outcome of the game was the tight persistent defensive work of the Clarion squad.

Slippery Rock Hands Eagles First Defeat

The Rockets of Slippery Rock State College handed the Clarion Eagles their first defeat of the season on Tuesday, December 5, by a score of 69 to 59. The game was played in Harvey Gymnasium on the Clarion Campus. The "Rockets" now have a record of 2-0 since they defeated Cheney previously, while Clarion now has a record of 1-1 defeating California.

The Rockets took the lead early in the game and retained it until only 5:15 was left in the first half, when Clarion took over the lead. Both teams played close ball the remaining 5 minutes with the first half ending with the score Clarion 33, Slippery Rock 31.

Immediately after the start of the second half the Slippery Rock squad again took over the lead and never relinquished it for the remainder of the game. With four minutes to go in the game, Clarion closed the gap with a score of 55-51 but failed to come any closer. The final score of the game was Slippery Rock 69, Clarion 59.

Clarion's shooting percentage for field goals was 37 percent, while Slippery Rock's percentage was 50 percent. The shooting percentage for fouls was Clarion, 49 percent and Slippery Rock, 63 percent. Bill Lechman played an outstanding game for Clarion, scoring 28 points.

Kiser Leads Team

Clarion's Rifle Club defeated the California State College Rifle Team by a score of 1333 to 1305 to gain their first victory of the season. The following is a list of the team members who qualified for this match and their scores: Kiser, 275; Gibson, 269; Selway, 270; Blake, 258, and Mensch, 261.

In previous matches Clarion's team has competed against Grove City and Geneva College.

This is the second year for Clarion's Rifle Club to be recognized as a varsity sport. They are coached by Mr. Charles Flack.

Eagles Capture Second Loop Tilt from Edinboro

The Clarion Golden Eagles won their second conference game on Saturday, December 9, by defeating Edinboro State College, 65 to 60. Edinboro now has a State College Conference record of one loss while Clarion has a record of two wins and one loss. The game was played in Clarion's Harvey Gymnasium before an excited capacity crowd.

The game got off to a bad start for Clarion with the absence of veteran Dale Wasylink, but a freshman, Terry Thompson, started in his place and did a fine job tossing in 15 points and garnering 11 rebounds. Bill Lechman had a bad night from the center spot, since he could hardly take a shot without getting fouled but he took advantage of this situation and made 15 out of 19 foul shot attempts. Wendell Rojik, of Edinboro, was the high scorer of the game with 23 points.

In the first half of the game, Clarion got off to a slow start but soon came out of it and was ahead for the rest of the first half. At 10:00 the score was Clarion 17, Edinboro 13, but due to a greatly effective full court press, the first half ended with the score Clarion 35, Edinboro 25. Bill Lechman was top scorer of the first half with 10 points.

In the second half, Clarion never lost their lead although Edinboro came within three points of them in the final minute of play. With 12:30 left to be played in the game, Ken Barker fouled out for Edinboro which was a great loss for them and a deciding factor in the game. Clarion also suffered a loss when Chuck Snell, their veteran outside man, fouled out with 5:12 to be played. With 15 seconds left the score was Edinboro 60, Clarion 63. Sophomore Eddy Green made two foul shots to make the final score Clarion 65, Edinboro 60.

Grapplers Win First Match

Port wine to me is the nectar of the gods, the excelsior of life. When I imbibe its fluids, my very soul begins to throb and glow. The music of a thousand muted violins and cellos whisper in my ears, and I am transformed from this world to the make-believe world of magic. On the other hand, beer makes me burp.

The Golden Eagle matmen had built up a 21-0 lead before St. Vincent's R. Payne decisioned Clarion's Pete Gereluk by a 6-2 count to score his teams only three points of the day.

Clarion's next match is scheduled for Tuesday, Dec. 12, when they will host the grapplers of Indiana State College.

On Saturday, Dec. 16, the Eagle wrestlers will journey to Edinboro where they will participate in the Western State College Tournament. At that time they will enter men in ten weight classes.

By Marjorie Gilmore and Andrea Hall

A Merry Christmas and Happy New Year to all the students and faculty of Clarion State College from the Greek organizations of the campus. We hope the Christmas season brings happiness, and the New Year brings prosperity, to those in your family.

Alpha Gamma Phi has been preparing for its Christmas party, which is held before the Christmas recess. We have also purchased baskets of food which are to be distributed during the holidays to the needy families in the Clarion area.

This semester the Gammas have taken in thirteen new members. They are: Jim Riley, Alex Murnyak, Mike Ferraro, Barry Trubka, Ken Burgen, Phil Oraz, John Whelan, Bob Gray, Jerry Heller, Paul Thomas, Dick Baker, Bob Montgomery and Bob Cornali.

Brothers Boley, Cipollone, and DeFelice are to be congratulated on becoming members of Phi Sigma Pi, Honorary Fraternity.

The Gammas will be quite active in sports this winter. On the basketball team are brothers Snell, Lechman, Green, Dudo and Montgomery. On the wrestling squad are brothers Baker, Caslow, Wilkinson, Gallo, Murnyak, Stuchell and Petrucci. The fraternity wishes them the best of luck for a successful season. Congratulations to brother Tick Chloerty for being selected to the All-State Football Team for the third time.

Beta Chi Upsilon sorority is selling Christmas plaques and figurines for the holiday. To join with the spirit of Christmas, the Betas had a party at the home of their sponsor, Miss Roxanne Irwin.

Joanne Connors, Carolyn Hartman, and Sandra Starr were initiated on December 11. Congratulations, girls!

Delta Zeta will initiate Dene Garvin, Sue Jones and Carol Lee Smith on December 11. After initiation, the sorority went caroling and had a party and gift exchange around the Christmas tree.

A party was held Friday evening, December 8, in the day room of Davis Hall and we hope all the guys and girls had a great time. A basket will be given to needy families from town as a philanthropic project. Delta Zeta is also sending a Christmas and birthday gift to a patient in the Carville Hospital.

Phi Sigma Epsilon will initiate this semester nine pledges who are: Jack Vesnesky, Gene Skrobat, Carl Kunselman, Al Richards, Jim Venture, Joe Mahkovec, Larry Bowser, Myron Kahler, and Lou Kereszturi. Congratulations and best of luck to these men!

Two Christmas trees are included in the decorations for the fraternity house this semester. A Christmas party for members and their dates on December 16 is planned.

The sisters of Sigma Delta Phi held their annual Christmas party on December 4 in the day room. Entertainment was provided by the new members. Christmas gifts were exchanged.

On December fourth Donna Dittman, Grace McGarthy, Grace Bailey, and Barbara McGraw were initiated into the sorority. We would like to welcome them and thank them for the nice gift which their pledge class presented to the sorority.

The sisters are busy gathering toys, clothes and food to give to a needy family in Clarion. This is a project which the girls undertake each Christmas season so that some needy family may have a more enjoyable Christmas.

On Monday, December 11, pledges Marilyn Rose, Kathy Costlow, Darlene Dingfelt, Sandy Johnson, Jan Rettman, Karen Winkler, and Nada Yanshak were initiated into Sigma Sigma Sigma. Congratulations!

On Thursday, December 14, a Christmas party for the members and some alumnae was held at Miss Wiant's home. The program and refreshments were prepared by the new initiates. A basket of toys and gifts will be presented to the children's ward of Allegheny Valley Hospital, Natrona Heights, by members living in the vicinity on December 21.

Sigma Tau Gamma held a couples party at the Fraternity House on November 18. Thanks to Dr. Still and Mr. Aharrah for chaperoning the party. A Christmas party is planned for December 16. There will be singing, dancing, and other entertainment typical of the season.

Congratulations to Larry Shreengost and his wife, Barbara, on the birth of the baby. Corrina Kay arrived December 6 and weighed almost six pounds.

Theta Chi was visited on November 19 by our chapter at Youngstown University and Sigma Alpha Epsilon returning from a weekend at the Theta Chi house at our Penn State chapter.

We are happy to announce that Mr. Charles W. Robbe has been accepted by the brotherhood as our fourth honorary member. Mr. Robbe, who is the director of the foreign studies program, teaches in the social studies department and is editor-in-chief of the department's monthly news letter, "The Pump Primer." He will be initiated with this semester's pledge class. His membership is a great honor to the chapter as well as the national fraternity.

This semester's pledge class of officers are: President, Gorman Shaffer, and Treasurer, Larry Ashbaugh. Their jobs are to organize their class in preparation for full membership in Theta Chi.

Zeta Tau Alpha welcomes into their national organization a new chapter, Delta Xi, at California State College, making 111 chapters in the United States and Canada.

Congratulations to Beta Beta Chapter in Carlisle on winning the stereo hi-fi for their house. Clarion students helped by saving cigarette packages which decided the winner among Carlisle's Greeks.

Zetas still have a few boxes of candy left. See any ZTA for turtles, mints, cashew crunch, or fruit cubes.

THANKS SANTA

Dear Santa,

Somewhat this year it doesn't seem quite fair to write Santa a letter asking something for ourselves. Rather, we should like to write a letter of thanks for the wonderful blessings this Christmas.

This Christmas season we are thankful for the hymns and other Christmas songs that are being sounded from choirs and glee clubs over the country. We welcome again the brightly-lighted Christmas trees and colorful windows that show our happy holiday spirit at CSC.

We give thanks for the peace we find when attending church among our friends and neighbors and to celebrate the wonderful birth of Christ.

But may we ask one favor?? Santa, make this Christmas the happiest for everyone.

For this gift we are—

Eternally grateful,
The Call Staff

A Clue to Clubs

Varsity and junior varsity cheerleaders urge the basketball teams to victory at every game.

Varsity squad included four girls and four boys. The girls are all in their junior year at Clarion and have had previous cheering experience. Charlene Benninghoff, captain, has cheered for three years and is from New Castle. Janice Watson, who has cheered for two years, is from North Hills; while Janie Schall, also a two-year veteran, is from Eldred. Jeanie Heinick, now in her third year of cheerleading, hails from Springdale. The newly added boys on the squad are all in their freshman year at Clarion. Tom Rakovan is from Leechburg, while Bill Cassidy is from Penn Hills. Pat Demarte's home is Kane, and Marty Ruley lives in Grove City.

Junior varsity group consists of four freshman girls. Andria Laney is from Ambridge, as is Lorna Palmer. Sandy Spencer hails from Shaler, and Kathy Benish's home is Irwin.

W.A.A.'s volleyball intramurals are involved in a very competitive tournament this year. At a little over the half way point, seven teams are still holding their own in the ranks of the undefeated. These teams are captained by Jan Barbero, Carol Ogg, Cathy Jones, Marilyn Rose, Jan Rugh, and the Tri Sigmas. These games are scheduled to be over on December 14th, with the play-offs on the 18th.

Basketball teams should be in the process of being organized. The basketball intramurals will immediately follow the volleyball tournament. If you are interested in timing, scoring or refereeing for basketball, please see Gail Jandrew or Joyce Fusca.

All the band members of the college wish to extend their congratulations to their competent conductor, Mr. Stanley F. Michalski, Jr., who was recently elected President of the Pennsylvania Chapter of National School Band Masters' Association. Phi Beta Mu, the name of this highly select group of band masters, is a non-political, non-profitting fraternity organized to promote good fellowship among its members, to encourage the building of better bands and the development of better musicians in American schools, and to foster deeper appreciation and more widespread interest in good music on the part of the lay public.

The Concert Band this year is the largest band in the history of Clarion State College and boasts a membership of 65 students.

The members are now diligently practicing for their concerts that are scheduled later in the school year. Invitations from the high schools of Turtle Creek, Munhall, and Chartiers Valley have been received by the band, and concert dates for the band to appear in these areas have been set for early spring.

To add to the Christmas spirit of the campus and to wish everyone a Merry Christmas, a Brass Choir from the band will play Christmas carols throughout the campus on Sunday evening, December 17.

Trophies for the over-all team, the first place teams, and the most valuable player in each sport will be the highlight of the intramural program.

For the independent, club, or fraternity team which obtains the greatest number of position points, a "point achievement" trophy will be presented with another one to just the club or fraternity team, on the same basis. A team must retain the trophy for two out of three years in order to keep it.

A moderate trophy will be awarded to the team in each sport who occupies top position. The first and second valuable players will receive trophies while the third post man will obtain a pin. These players in each sport are chosen by their competitors.

P. S. E. A. held its monthly meeting on November 28, 1961, in the auditorium of the chapel. A committee was organized to plan a new Constitution for the organization.

The business meeting was followed by three extensive and interesting talks presented by Dr. Page and Dr. Small, co-sponsors for P. S. E. A. and Mr. Moorehouse, a demonstration teacher in the training school.

Students, please check blackboards and newsletter for the date of the Christmas meeting!

DEBATE has once again come to the Clarion Campus after a thirty year absence. This educational activity has been enthusiastically received by members of the freshman class who see the values of research organization, and self-expression on topics of national and international concern.

December 9, Allegheny College - Delta Sigma Rho; February 9-10, King's College - Wilkesbarre; February 17, St. Vincent College - LaTrobe; February 24, Mount Mercy College - Pittsburgh; March 2-3, Carnegie Institute of Technology - Pittsburgh; March 17, University of Pittsburgh - Spring Novice; April 14, University of Buffalo - Individual Events.

On November 23, 1961, the NEWMAN CLUB was honored to have as their guest speaker, Father James Peterson of Gannon College. Father's topic for the evening involved the Advent Season.

The Newman Club Christmas program which consists of Christmas caroling around the town and a party afterwards in the Immaculate Conception Gym is to be held on Sunday evening, December 17.

Looking ahead in the future the Newman Club has organized a committee for planning events of the oncoming semester. Suggestions can be submitted in reference to this committee by the Newman Club members.

The Newman Club extends to all a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Merry Christmas and a
Happy New Year

Campus Elects Sharon Kock Roto Candidate

SHARON KOCK

Sharon Kock, a Clarion freshman, is the winner of the Roto Press contest. The four candidates were selected from the Queen's Court. The other three were Nancy Horlick, Carol Horvath, and Dana Zook. On February 8, the students voted Sherry the winner.

Sharon's photo will now be sent to Pittsburgh along with pictures of the other competing coeds from Pennsylvania colleges. The March 18 edition of the Roto section of the Press will feature all the contestants. The winner will be announced in the Roto the following week with four runner-ups which will comprise the Queen's Court.

The queen and her court will be invited to Pittsburgh, where they will be guests at a luncheon which will feature the coeds as the attraction. The queen's picture will appear on the cover of the Roto section after the decision of the judges. An article about the queen will follow the picture.

Play to Star Martha Scott

MARTHA SCOTT

"A Distant Bell" will be produced by the Clarion State College Players on March 12 through March 17 and will star popular stage, screen, and television actress, Martha Scott.

Miss Scott studied dramatics at the University of Michigan, and immediately upon completing her college days, she went to Chicago in search of professional work. Here she became a member of a Shakespearean Company at the Globe Theatre in the Chicago World's Fair.

Her first great success on Broadway was, of course, "Our Town," which won the Pulitzer Prize and immediately propelled her into the very front rank of young American actresses. Miss Scott repeated her gentle, glowing performance as Emily Webb before the cameras when "Our Town" was filmed, and won an Academy Award nomination for it. She has appeared in other films: "The Howards of Virginia," "Miss Bishop," "One Foot in Heaven," "Sayonara," "The Ten Commandments," "Ben Hur," "Desperate Hours," with John Mills in James Hilton's "So Well Remembered," and many others.

On Broadway Miss Scott has appeared in "The Willow and I," "Soldier's Wife," and for a season she was Sally Middleton in "The Voice of the Turtle." She starred with Elliott Nugent in an enormously successful revival of "The Male Animal" and was seen with Dane Clark in "The Number," with Burgess Meredith in "The Remarkable Mr. Pennypacker," and with Mivasha Skulnik in last season's "49th Cousin."

The season before last, Miss Scott appeared in "A Distant Bell," a play which was rated as one of the season's ten best plays by critic John Chapman.

Martha Scott is the wife of Mil Powell, well known pianist who was once associated with Benny Goodman and the late Glenn Miller. She has three children, Scott, age 19; Mary, age 13, and Kate, age one and one-half.

New Fraternity Now on Campus

The I.F.C. admitted a new fraternity to the male Greek organization on campus during their January meeting. This fraternity is the Theta Xi Alpha fraternity. This new group meets the need for more Greek organizations on campus because of the increased enrollment at Clarion State.

Officers of the organization include: president, Joseph Bucceri; vice president, Lenny Dumbarski; recording secretary, Eugene Valko; corresponding secretary, William Nabors; treasurer, James Thomson; pledge master, Dick Pavlock; social chairman, Jack Casera; historian, George Howard, and IFC representative, Gary Watson.

The purpose of the fraternity is to unite academic and social standards among its members as a part of their college life.

Since Theta Xi Alpha is still in the making, they haven't had much opportunity to participate in competition as to date. However, the group will bring about its first pledge class this coming month. They are open to all students who agree that scholastic standards and social activities be maintained in a unit program in order to promote better fraternal feeling.

Editors Meet Governor for Student Press Conference

On February 8, 1962, approximately 45 college editors met in the Governor's office in Harrisburg for the second Student Press Conference to be held this year. The editor of the "Clarion Call," Nina Miller, attended the conference.

During the conference the Governor was assisted by some of his cabinet members. They were: Thomas Monaghan, Secretary of Commerce; David Baldwin, Secretary of Budget; and David Kurtzman, Secretary of Administration. After introducing these members, Governor Lawrence quoted Thomas Dewey by saying, "Fire when you are ready."

For the next hour and fifteen minutes the editors did "fire" questions to the Governor.

When asked about the possibilities for state scholarships to students, the Governor pointed out the constitutional amendment, which will permit the granting of scholarships and student loans, that has passed one session of the Legislature and will be brought up again in the 1963 session. This is a step to provide higher education to students in both public and private colleges.

The Governor's Office was in doubt as to whether the state colleges would be able to offer the liberal arts degree by this fall, even though it was in many of the college catalogs for the upcoming semester.

Many students wonder why we at state colleges have to pay the four percent state sales tax on textbooks. The answer is that if we all would buy our books from the bookstore they could be exempted. However, if we did not, the state would have a hard time in defining a textbook.

Another problem brought up was why foreign exchange students to Pennsylvania state colleges would have to pay the tuition of a nonresident student.

One of the pressing problems of Pennsylvania is the restricting of Congressional seating. The Legislature is now in the process of trying to regain one of the seats so we will have 28 instead of the 27 designated members. The Governor pointed out that we did not lose the seats because we are falling back in our population, but because we as a state have failed to keep up with the growing states, such as, California.

The Governor favors aid that the federal government would give towards education in the states. He felt that such aid would not be a step to federal control of education.

Lawrence refused to comment as to whom his successor will be. He only stated that he intended to settle back and write a few books after his term is over.

Following the conference there were supplementary conferences with the heads of different departments. Nina attended the one with Dr. Boehm, head of the Department of Public Instruction. At this conference he explained the master plan of education for Pennsylvania.

Under this plan a student will graduate from high school and then attend a community college. These colleges are especially for two year general education students, adult education, or two year transfer students. After the community college, the student would then transfer to a state college or a private college. Finally one will go to a state university for degrees above the bachelor's degree. A possible three state university will be set up for these students.

"Sure looks like whatever it is, doesn't it."

Editorially Speaking

In my opinion girls should be permitted to wear slacks to breakfast and lunch. There are many reasons to back up this statement. One reason is that wearing slacks is much more convenient. In a few classes, such as "Teaching of Health and Physical Education," the girls are required to wear slacks. If they were allowed to wear slacks to lunch it would not be necessary for those having class before lunch to go back to the dorm and change clothes. Instead, they could save a great deal of time and effort if permitted to wear slacks to lunch.

Another reason for wearing slacks to breakfast and lunch is for comfort. On blustery cold winter days slacks are much warmer than skirts, besides being more convenient.

Girls were permitted to wear slacks—and even Bermuda shorts—to breakfast and lunch up until three years ago.

As you can see, wearing slacks to breakfast and lunch would be more comfortable. But, by no means do I advocate wearing slacks to dinner. There is a "time and a place" for everything; this is breakfast and lunch, not dinner.

Hickory, Dickory, Clock

What is the first thing you generally look at in the morning? Your clock, of course. It is also the last thing you look at before you fall into bed around 2:30 in the morning. In every room in every dorm it is usually safe to have at least three clocks. Why, three clocks, you ask? Simply because one is set by Union time, one by campus time, and the third by dining hall time. There is a grand total of 20 minutes difference between the three.

When you want to get to classes before roll is taken, you leave by campus time. If you desire to arrive at the dining hall before every seat is taken, you leave by dining hall time. And, if you want to meet that "certain person" in the Union, you have to leave by Union time, otherwise they will have become disgusted and left long before you ever get there. Unnecessary to have three clocks? No!

In this day of many changes and rapid progress in the fields of science, you would think a school would be able to keep the clocks synchronized. One or two minutes difference between clocks is understandable, but this is ridiculous!

After hurriedly leaving the Union three minutes before eleven and racing up the mountain to Given dorm, it is very disconcerting to find it is fifteen to eleven when you arrive. Likewise, it is not too pleasant to leave ten minutes early for a class by dorm time, and to leisurely stroll into class while the teacher is right in the middle of a lecture.

Don't despair, good people, something can be done, although when it will be done is a good question. However, if something isn't done soon, many more students will be on the verge of a nervous breakdown and will sound like one poor elementary student who has been heard continuously repeating . . .

"Hickory, dickory, dock,
In Seminary it's one o'clock,
In Science it's seven, in the gym eleven.
Won't someone please fix the clocks!"

—Stacy Rousseau

An Eye for an Eye

Dear Cornelia,
My boyfriend attends Casanova College and I attend Clarion. For Valentine's Day this year, I received a beautiful red rose bouquet. Of course, I was very surprised to receive the flowers, but was even more surprised when I read the note. The words in the note were very sweet, but it was not written to me, but to some girl named Gloria. I was then so upset that I picked the flowers out of the vase and threw them away. What I want to know is should I write back to Harry (my boyfriend) telling him my name isn't Gloria and never will be, or should I simply overlook Harry's error and act as if nothing has happened? Miss Filch,
I suggest that you, first of all, out of due gratitude to Harry, pick those lovely roses out of the wastebasket. But, don't think I'm going to advise you to overlook Harry's mistake. Select a thank you note (one which permits you to write your own message inside) and send it to Harry. Don't forget to pen in the charm, but instead of writing dearest Harry, I suggest you write darling Joe.

P.S. Don't forget to thank Joe (I mean Harry) for the box of chocolates he sent with the roses.

Joint Meeting Set

There will be a joint meeting of the junior and senior classes on Tuesday, February 20, 1962, during the fourth period. The purpose of the meeting is to decide on the Spring Dance for this year. If there is not sufficient interest shown there will not be a Spring Dance this year.

Dean's List Given For First Semester

The following persons have been placed on the Dean's List for the first semester of 1961-62. Those who received a quality point average of 2.30 or better on the 3.00 scale, or 3.30 or better on the 4.00 scale, for a full-time course of instruction were eligible for this honor. No person with a grade of "E" was included in the list.

The list included approximately eight percent of the student body. Another eight and one-half percent ranked above the average of 2.00 or 3.00. We wish to congratulate these students on their achievement and hope they will continue this superior work.

Another recognition for superior students is the nomination of approximately two percent of the student body for publication in "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges." These names are published in a book which has wide circulation throughout the colleges, universities, and libraries of the country. It is not too early to set as your goal a place on this list.

BAND NEWS Scholarship to Harvard Given

RONALD SHUMAKER

The band joined other clubs and organizations of the campus participating in the activities of the Winter Capades Week by presenting the College Dance Band as the orchestra for the Winter Capades Dance held February 17, to climax the week's festivities. The Dance Band also presented a Chapel assembly on February 22 and the music was enjoyed by all who attended. In addition to these two events, the Dance Band members have been rehearsing music to be played for proms and assemblies at high schools in the surrounding areas in the month of May.

A one-day tour to Brookville and St. Marys has been planned for the Concert Band to complete on February 26. The members of the band, with a new appearance of girls in black dresses and heels and boys in band uniforms, will perform their first concert of the year for high school assemblies in these areas.

Tuesday, March 6, at 10:45 a.m., the college will have a special assembly in the chapel. For this assembly the College Concert Band, under the direction of Mr. Stanley F. Michalski, Jr., will present a concert of marches, overtures, concertos, and music from Broadway shows. Since this assembly does not appear at the regular assembly period on Thursday, all students will be permitted to attend the concert.

Another first in the history of the College Band will be the feature of a recognizable musician to appear as soloist with the band in a performance on March 26 at 8:00 p.m. in the local high school auditorium. This musician is the world's greatest trumpet virtuoso, Rafael Mendez, who is famous for his superb technique, amazing tone, uncanny breath control, and lightning finger work. Dr. Edwin Frank Goldman, the late conductor of the famous Goldman Band of New York City, wrote that the Mexican born Rafael Mendez "has no equal and is in a class by himself. He excels in all particulars; his tone is all that can be desired; his technique is unsurpassable, and his style is that of the true artist. He is in every sense a great musician." Mr. Mendez will play a number of trumpet solos with the background music provided by the College Band for the performance. Clinics and rehearsals will be held all day on March 26, before the concert in the high school auditorium, and all students are welcome to attend them.

CLARION VS EDINBORO IN MAJOR SPORTS

The undefeated Clarion wrestling squad came through with another thrilling victory on Tuesday, February 13, when they downed the Edinboro grapplers, 18-10, at the Edinboro field house.

The match was one which will be important in deciding who will take the Western Pennsylvania Conference. The match was similar to several of Clarion's previous matches with the last two weight classes deciding the outcome of the match. At the end of the sixth individual match the score was tied, 10-10. In the 177 weight class, Pete Gereluk pinned Pudisill, of Edinboro, in 2:33 of the second period to make the score of the match 15-10 for Clarion. In the unlimited division, Edinboro put Greg Manning, the unlimited champ for the past three years, in the State College Conference against Clarion's Earl "Peaches" Petrucci, who is a sophomore and had a record of five wins including four pins going into the match. In last year's match, Manning decided Petrucci by one point for a near pin over Manning, but was not quite able to pin him. Petrucci went on to decision Manning, 8-2, and the match ended with a score of 18-10. Dave Caslow also preserved his undefeated record by decisioning Henderson of Edinboro, 1-0, giving him a record of six wins including three pins.

CSC Matmen Win Over Slippery Rock

The Clarion State College Wrestlers won their important match over Slippery Rock State College Tuesday, February 6, by a score of 17-13.

This makes Clarion undefeated for the season with an overall record of 4-0. They won the Western State College Tournament at Edinboro. Slippery Rock now has an overall record of 3-1.

The match was held in Harvey Gymnasium to an overflowing crowd which was held in suspense until the last weight class. With two weight classes left to wrestle, Clarion was behind 12-9 and had to win the next two bouts. Clarion's 177-pound Frank Grudler decisioned his man to make the score 13-12 in favor of Slippery Rock. This left the result of the match in the hands of the heavyweights of the two teams.

Clarion's Earl "Peaches" Petrucci brought the partisan Clarion crowd to a standing ovation as he pinned Slippery Rock's Heavyweight Bringer after one minute and 52 seconds had passed in the second period of his bout.

On Tuesday, February 12, the Clarion Golden Eagles traveled to the home of the league-leading Edinboro Red Raiders and were defeated by a slim margin of five points, 67-62. Edinboro now has an overall record of 12-4 with a conference record of 6-1. Clarion's overall record is now 5-8 with a conference record of 3-5.

The first half of the game found the lead changing hands several times with the half ending in a score of Edinboro 33, Clarion 32. In the first half Clarion shot 50 percent from the field while Edinboro shot 28 percent, but Edinboro made up for their poor shooting by greatly superior rebounding in the first half.

In the second half the score again changed hands several times. At the 10:00 mark, Edinboro led by five points, 51-46, but with 3:23 to go in the game, Clarion's George Rocco tied the game up, 48-48. With only 36 seconds to go in the game the score was Clarion 62, Edinboro 63. Ken Gerber, of Edinboro, made two foul shots to make the score 62-64. Edinboro's big Jim Sims, who had come in at the Center position, tied the game for Edinboro by making an under the board hook shot to make the final score Edinboro 67, Clarion 62.

The high scorer of the game was Clarion's constantly good performer Jack Himes, who had 28 points. Overall, Clarion shot 42 percent from the field while Edinboro shot 30 percent. Edinboro had 33 rebounds compared to Clarion's 32. Clarion was handicapped by the absence of veteran court ace, Chuck Snell.

Eagles Down Indiana For Second Time

The Clarion State Wrestling Squad traveled to Indiana on Saturday, February 10, and defeated the Indiana squad by a score of 18-14. This is the second time Clarion has defeated Indiana this year. The win over Indiana gives Clarion a season record of five wins and no losses plus; they took first place in the Western State College Tournament held at Edinboro on December 16. Dave Caslow and Earl Petrucci, of Clarion, both came through with their fifth straight regulation match win. Petrucci has four pins in his credit and Caslow has three pins.

The match between Clarion and Indiana was decided by the heavyweights of the two teams. The score was 14-13 in favor of Indiana going into the final match. Earl Petrucci, Clarion's heavyweight, came through in fine style as he pinned Greg Caldwell, of Indiana, in 1:23 of the second period to make the final score Clarion 18, Indiana 14.

Golden Eagles Again Beaten by Alliance

Clarion's attempt to avenge a previous 107-85 defeat at the hand of Alliance College was to no avail on Friday, February 9, as the Golden Eagles were again defeated by Alliance by a score of 92-75. The loss to Alliance gives Clarion an over-all record of five wins and seven losses with a conference record of three wins and four losses. The game was played in Clarion's Harvey Gym to an over-capacity crowd. In fact, the water from melted snow which had been tracked into the gym almost made the game a farce in the latter part of the second half. Several times players from both teams appeared to be doing acrobatics as they slipped and fell because of the water on their shoes.

Alliance was aided in their victory by a definite height advantage over Clarion plus added speed and passing accuracy. They shot 35 percent from the field while Clarion shot 40 percent from the field.

After the first few minutes of the first half, the Clarion squad led the remainder of the first half until almost the last shot of the half when Al Bush, of Alliance, tied it up at the half, 47-47. The Clarion squad capitalized on fast breaks and good shooting percentage in the first half to overcome the height advantage which Alliance had over them.

In the second half of the game, Clarion was no match for Alliance as they slowly fell behind in the scoring column. At the 10:00 mark, Alliance led by 12 points, 65-77. In the final minutes of the game, Jack Himes, of Clarion, fouled out with 4:22 left and Bob Grunden fouled out also for Clarion with 2:30 left to go. Jack Himes was high for Clarion with 19 points.

CLARION COURTMEN LOSE BY 18 POINTS

On Tuesday, February 6, the Clarion Golden Eagles traveled to Slippery Rock State College and suffered their second defeat of the year at the hands of the Rockets by a score of 86-68. The Eagles couldn't seem to get started against the fast-moving Slippery Rock team. The halftime score was Clarion 27, Slippery Rock 43. Terry Thompson, of Clarion, was high scorer of the game with 21 points. Ken Byler was high for Slippery Rock with 17 points.

REBOUND ATTEMPTED BY CLARION CAGERS

Golden Eagles Edge Fenn

The Clarion Golden Eagles defeated the towering Fenn Foxes Saturday, February 3, by a score of 96 to 86. The game was played before a capacity crowd in Clarion's Harvey Gymnasium. The win over Fenn gives Clarion an overall record of 5-5 with a conference mark of 3-3. Fenn College, of Cleveland, Ohio, now has an overall record of two wins and seven losses.

Clarion made a change in its starting lineup because of the addition of 6'3" Dale Wasylink to the active playing list. Wasylink has been unable to attend most of the games the first semester because of student teaching responsibilities. He moved into Jack Himes' forward position and Himes was moved outside to replace George Rocco as one of the starting guards.

The first half started with an exchange of the lead several times. The great advantage in height was offset by a fast and alert Clarion squad. At the 10:00 mark in the first half the score was Fenn 20, Clarion 21. Clarion could only spread this lead to six points by the halftime and the first half ended with a score of Clarion 47, Fenn 41.

Indiana Averages Defeat

On January 31 the Clarion Eagles encountered the Indiana Indians on the Indians' home court and were beaten by a score of 90-62. Thus, they avenged a previous defeat at the hands of Clarion by a score of 102-85, which was probably one of the better games the Clarion Eagles have played this season.

The Indiana squad was bolstered by the return of Jim Pendleton and Bob Smith, who were not on the squad when they played Clarion previously. Even with the addition of these two fine players, Indiana had a rough time of it the first half of the ballgame. At the end of the first half the score was Indiana 29, Clarion 24. The second half of the game turned out to be completely opposite as Indiana moved easily ahead of the Clarion squad who couldn't do anything right while Indiana kept pouring the points through the net. The high scores of the game were Jack Himes, of Clarion, and John Sinclair, of Indiana, both having 20 points.

The final quarter was marked by a few good drives by Clarion's Chuck Snell and Jack Himes. The win by Clarion over Fenn was strictly a team effort with all five starters for Clarion scoring in double figures. Weldon Kytte, of Fenn, was high scorer of the game with 29, while Jack Himes was high for Clarion with 26 points.

A Peek at Greeks

By Marjorie Gilmore and Andrea Hall

The new semester finds Clarion State College campus with a new fraternity, THETA XI ALPHA. We welcome their presence and extend to them our sincere congratulations.

They, as well as our other sororities and fraternities, are busily planning for the rush parties this year. Here's hoping that they are successful!

The SIGMA TA GAMMAS have started something new at the fraternity house. A cafeteria has been initiated in the basement under the supervision of commissarian Carl McManamy. We would like to express our thanks to Carl for the excellent job he has done in setting up the cafeteria. Our cook is Mrs. Fox from Rimersburg.

White Roses to Fay Answine who has accepted our invitation to be Sigma Tau Gamma's candidate for Snow Queen.

Five new officers were installed at our last meeting before semester breaks, and they include: president, Jack Nold; vice president, Pat Demarte; commissarian, Carl McManamy; house manager, Lou Cvetnic; athletic director, Bill Zema.

Congratulations to all of these members on a successful job of student teaching: Denny Gaiser, Gene Waitkus, Ron Shumaker, Don Day, Paul Chantrey, and Jack Loya.

The fraternity basketball team is set for the second semester, and they are 1-0 at the time of this writing. The team is under the able leadership of captain Denny Gaiser.

THETA XI ALPHA is a local fraternity organized by a group of fraternity-minded young men in the fall of 1961 and recognized and admitted to the Interfraternity Council on January 15, 1962.

Also this month, we will participate in our first major competition, the snow sculpture—part of the Winter Festival program here at Clarion State College. In conjunction with the Festival, we must also nominate a candidate to represent Theta Xi Alpha in contention for "Queen of the Festival."

Our queen is Jo Ann Schnitzki, an elementary major who is a sophomore from Wampum, Pa. We, the members of Theta Xi Alpha, are honored and pleased that Miss Schnitzki has accepted to represent our fraternity. We would like to take this opportunity to forward our profound and indelible acknowledgments of gratitude to her.

The BETA CHI EPSILON sorority wish to welcome back our sisters, Corinne Kress, Carole Kress, and Suellen Lehner, from student teaching. We also wish to extend our best wishes to Joan Reed and Gloria Torchio, students teachers for second semester.

The sisters of SIGMA DELTA PHI are back this semester filled with enthusiasm for the rest of the college year.

We would like to welcome back our advisor, Miss Martha Stewart, who has returned after taking a sabbatical leave the first semester.

The girls would like to report that the pre-coke party was a success, and we are busily preparing for and anxiously awaiting the informal and formal rush parties.

SIGMA SIGMA SIGMA welcomes back the seniors, Jeanette Graham, Carole Boris, Marty Lauffer, Barbara Gor, Donna Bert, and Phyllis Corbett, from their student teaching assignments.

Violets are extended to Carole Boris who has assumed presidential duties again while Dale Stitt Anderson finishes her studies at Penn State.

Rushing season is upon us again and our "German Beer Party" was the scene of singing and laughing by our rushees and sisters. Plans are now in the making for our formal rush party. We were happy to see many freshmen at the chapel meeting and the coke parties.

Hi again from ZETA TA ALPHA! The new officers for the coming year are: president, Sandy Pifer; vice president, Pat Eakin; secretary, Ginny Burdette; treasurer, Corinne Hough; historian, Joanne Pepperman; membership, Ruth Ann Land; and ritual, Joan McKinny.

A Clue to Clubs

There was a meeting of the International Relations Club on February 6, 1962. This meeting was for the specific purpose of electing new officers for the coming year. The old officers who vacated their positions are to be congratulated for their fine job.

The newly elected officers are Ken Zamberlan, president; Ruth Ann Land, vice president; Bonnie Buljat, secretary, and Joanne Sutej, treasurer.

Signs will be posted as to our next meeting. Everyone should come to our next meeting and share some intellectual ideas.

The Speech Monographs, March 1962, will be featuring a condensation of a chapter from a forthcoming book on "Experimental Phonetics," by Dr. Elbert R. Moses, Jr. This chapter which concerns "Experiments with Tongue-Palate Contacts" was also the basis for the Fourth International Congress on Phonetic Sciences at Helsinki, Finland in September, 1961.

The Newman Club is now well on its way into another schedule full of activities. One of its biggest events is the membership drive which is steadily increasing.

With the new semester Newman Club has started a Coffee Clutch every Saturday from 1 to 3 and Sunday from 1 to 4 at the immaculate Conception Gym. Dancing, basketball, volleyball and other activities are planned.

Regular meetings are held at least once a month and any person officially enrolled in the college may be eligible for membership.

The newly-elected officers are: president, John Hughes; vice president, Paul Voyten; secretary, Carol Ann Chircicuzio, and treasurer, Sara Willoughby.

Any student interested in becoming a member of this club should contact one of the officers.

On February 14, 1962, the New-

College Players Produce Morrill's "Distant Bell"

MARTHA SCOTT

The next production of the College Players, "A Distant Bell," has been rescheduled to open on March 27 and run through March 31.

"A Distant Bell" is the story of Lucy Greer, a woman living in a world of reincarnations, suspicions and memories, who has just returned from an insane asylum and is trying desperately to hold on to her sanity, in spite of everything done to her by her in-laws. Recreating her original Broadway role of Lucy Greer will be Martha Scott; other characters have been cast by Director Bob Copeland from members of the College Players.

Mrs. Greer has three daughters: the socially proper Barrett (Faye Motzer), the life-loving Flagg (Barbara Hankey), and the depressed Waverly (Carole Boris). The plot revolves not only around Mrs. Greer's struggle to prove herself sane, but also around her determination to save Waverly, who is afraid of becoming insane, from going through the same tortures that she has gone through for ten years.

Waverly is in love with John Creighton (Charles Belavie), and the romance is going along smoothly until sister Flagg steps in. This triangle leads to the downfall of Waverly, to the eruption of Barrett's long held-in emotions, and to the ultimate end of Lucy Greer's struggle.

The comic relief is provided by Mrs. Brighton, the "unwanted" housekeeper, played by Mary Moses.

The over-bearing in-laws, Dora and Burton Greer and Keene Stanfield, are played by Marian Woodward, Pat McNeil, and Marilyn Hopkins.

Carol McDonald, Frank Buffington, and Tony Szymkowiak are Clara Hurd, Jackson Dunne, and Arthur Wilson, friends of Flagg.

Dick Brosnahan will be seen as Mr. Wilbur, the undertaker.

Miss Scott will arrive in Clarion on the afternoon of March 21 after she has completed a television interview in Pittsburgh on Channel Four. Her two weeks in Clarion will be spent in intensive rehearsal and in attending civic and social functions.

A Welcome Parade will be held in Martha Scott's honor on Saturday, March 24, at 11 a.m. The parade will commence at Main Street and Third Avenue and travel east on Main Street. It will stop in front of the Ross Memorial building and Miss Scott will be escorted from her car to the platform for the platform ceremony. After the ceremony, the parade will continue to Eighth Avenue and disband at the Eighth Avenue extension.

Also held in Miss Scott's honor will be a Community Theater Lunch, Press Reception, Faculty Reception, Venango Campus Student Tea, and College Players and CSC Student Luncheon.

The set construction and scene painting for "A Distant Bell" is being done by Mr. Copeland's Theatre Production class. The set is a rather involved, two-story construction of a New England home in the mid-thirties. The work of the Theater Production class has also included building a dressing room in the chapel to accommodate our talented guest star.

College Expansion Program To Be Completed By 1970

Rapid growth of our Clarion student body in the past five years has caused campus officials to meet this growth with a rapid expansion program to be completed by 1970.

Evidences of this program may be noted by the construction of the new library and the new special education building which are to be completed by July. Meanwhile, the surveying has begun for the new women's dormitory to be erected on the practice field and for the road to Wilson Avenue from Given Hall.

A lesser known expansion is taking place in the maintenance department. A warehouse on Greenville Avenue is now being prepared for use by this department before the end of the year.

As these visible projects are being completed, further plans are being formulated. Funds for several new buildings have already been appropriated. One of these buildings is the new dining hall and the other is the field house and gymnasium with supporting boiler house and tennis courts.

These buildings will go into construction in late 1963.

Funds have also been provided for the excavation of the basement of Harvey Gym this summer. It is hoped that by next fall that this will provide larger snack bar facilities and some lounging area for the student body. When the new fieldhouse is completed, the rest of Harvey Gym will be taken over for a recreation center. This will be some time in 1965.

Architectural funds have been set aside for the new science building and planetarium. Its construction will take place during 1965. Science Hall will then be torn down. The Chapel will be repaired and turned into a "Little" Theater.

Athletic facilities for a field are hoped to improve by excavating college property on Main Street at the other end of town. This work will begin in part by next fall.

The present campus is to be still further expanded and when the present and planned projects are completed, Clarion will be provided with facilities to handle about 3,000 students.

J. Luther Attends NEA Conference

James Luther, vice president of Student P.S.E.A. at the state level, attended a national conference of Student N.E.A. at Washington, D. C. on February 8 and 9. Jim represented Pennsylvania at this conference due to the illness of Ron Gottshall, state president of Student P.S.E.A.

The conference was devoted to discussing future problems of N.E.A. in terms of Student N.E.A. attitudes. One of the topics discussed was teachers unions. It was hoped that through this conference both organizations would better understand the problems they face and be able to cooperate in finding their solutions.

Speech Clinic Worthwhile To Students

Since September of 1961, CSC speech clinic, located in Room 390, Science Hall, has been under the efficient direction of Professor Jerome Liebman. Previous to this year, Mr. Liebman has had much experience in this field; consulting and diagnostic work in a New Jersey clinic, five and a half years clinical rehabilitation work in speech and hearing, and private practice. Student clinicians, who are chosen by their experience, personality, and qualifications in the course, practice actual therapy under professional supervision.

Needless to say, the main objective of the clinic is to correct speech defects so that students can qualify for teaching assignments. Potential clinic patients may be referred for rehabilitation by any member of the faculty or any member of the student body. However, all referrals are definitely investigated with an unbiased viewpoint—because a person is sent for an interview does not necessarily indicate that he will be scheduled for private classes. Those who do need help are subjected to functional articulation drills, counseling, practice sessions, and at times speeches are tape recorded and in special cases hearing tests are administered. An accepted referral must stay in the clinic until his defect is cleared up—this may take from six weeks to a few months. On the day that the student is discharged, two letters of dismissal are sent; one to Dean Moore, Dean of Instruction, and the other to Doctor Page, Director of Student Teacher Placement.

Last semester, eighteen students were helped; this semester, there are twenty-four getting these profitable treatments.

It must be remembered by all students that there is no stigma attached to those who are referred to the clinic. The clinic is operated only for the student's benefit. If he cooperates, it is for his advantage and mutual benefit.

In the future years, it is hoped that the clinic will eventually be able to serve the community.

Professor to Receive Doctorate

Professor Max Nemmer has completed all the requirements for his Doctorate of Philosophy in English at the University of Pittsburgh. He will formally be awarded this degree in the June commencement.

Dr. Nemmer's dissertation was on the Dramatic Significance of Physical Distinction on Characters of the English Renaissance and Drama.

At present Dr. Nemmer teaches Freshman Composition and a survey course in both English and American Literature. Before coming to Clarion he taught as a graduate assistant at Pitt.

RAFAEL MENDEZ

Trumpet Virtuoso Appears With CSC Concert Band

The Clarion High School Auditorium will be the scene of a concert presented by the Clarion State College Band, featuring the world renowned trumpet soloist, Rafael Mendez, on March 26 at 8:00 p.m.

This handsome Latin-American musician, who has succeeded in taming the trumpet, has artistic talents of trumpet playing that has been acknowledged as having triumphant aspects in the amazingly sure technique which permits such rapidity of playing, the co-ordination of fingers, lip work, triple-tonguing, breath control, and firm, perfectly formed accurate and purity of silvery tones. Mr. Mendez has made musical history by establishing new standards of performance for the trumpet, as Paganini did for the violin and Liszt for the piano. At the age of six, Mendez was amazing audiences; as a youth, he outplayed the leading teachers of the instrument; and as a mature artist, he is conceded universally to be the greatest trumpet virtuoso of all time.

Born in the Mexican village of Jiquilpan which is approximately three hundred miles west of Mexico City, Mr. Mendez came to the United States in his early twenties, and while living with relatives in Gary, Indiana, worked in the steel mills there. It was in Detroit where he attracted the attention of some musicians with his trumpet playing which started his rapid progression to the top of his profession.

Mendez performs and has performed all around the world in symphonies, concerts, movies, television programs and clinics. Among many others, he has appeared in the motion pictures "Holiday in Mexico," "Fiesta," and "For Whom the Bulls Toil," on Bing Crosby, Paul Whiteman, Hollywood Music Hall, and NBC Symphony radio programs, and the television programs, Toast of the Town, Red Skelton, Milton Berle, Jimmy Durante, Pasadena Pops, and Bandstand Review. Mendez has also served as soloist of a number of symphonies including the Los Angeles Philharmonic, Carnegie Hall Symphony, Mexico City Symphony, Burbank Symphony, and Hollywood Bowl Orchestra.

For the evening concert, Rafael Mendez will play "Macarena," a special arrangement that he developed for use in concerts, and this number has also been featured in several motion pictures dealing with bull fighters in which he has appeared. Other songs on the program are the rapid fire "Tico Tico," "A Trumpeter's Lullaby," and "Chiapanecas." The College Concert Band, directed by Stanley F. Michalski, Jr., will play other selections to complete the performance.

On Friday, March 9, the debate team met Edinboro State College team in a public debate in Clarion State College Chapel at 7:00 p.m.

They have made appearances before the Clarion Woman's Club this past month and the College Assembly last week.

The Society's calendar calls for debates in the tournaments at Grove City College, University of Pittsburgh, and Rutgers University.

Other programs will be a local campus interpretative reading festival, participation in an individual events tournament at the University of Buffalo, and the Fourteenth Annual Pennsylvania Intercollegiate Reading Festival sponsored by Pennsylvania State University.

The Clarion State College Forensic Society is sponsored by Glenn B. Phipps, a faculty member of the Speech Department and Director of Forensics.

HALF-PAST TEEN

Editorially Speaking

Have you ever sat in your room on a Saturday afternoon and complained, "There just is not any place to go." You have seen both movies before, you are tired of the Union, and the Modern Dinor does not seem to be quite the place where you can spend an exciting evening. Therefore, what is there to do?

Most Clarion students are hampered by the absence of two things: money and a car. Even if you have money and own a car, your choice of activities is somewhat limited, and without a car very few people feel like walking to Nick's, the Dinor, or the show in two feet of snow. Where do most people finally congregate? In our cheerful, overcrowded Union, of course. It is the perfect place to go on a date. After all, in the Union you can talk to your heart's content and inhale as much cigarette smoke as you want to. You can drink cup after cup of black coffee and dance in the hall to the music of the jukebox. That is what you have been doing week after week, isn't it? One consolation of this way of spending the evening is that it does not cost too much money. You think you can guess what is coming, don't you?

"Here it comes, the pitch for a bigger Union. Everyone knows that will take ages to get." Surprise! These next few paragraphs will present a new idea, one that takes little money and can be carried out immediately if approved.

There is a room in the basement of Davis Hall known as the Dayroom. It is there mainly for the use of commuting students. During the day, it serves its purpose well. But, at night it is not used at all. This room could provide the answer to our too-small Union. If it were left open Friday and Saturday nights, it could give students a place to go when they are tired of the ordinary ones. This idea is not at all unusual. Most colleges have a television room in connection with their Union. If a television set or a record player could be installed, the Dayroom could become a very interesting place to go. You could dance, watch TV or play cards, among other activities.

With all this extra money you have paid for a new Union, some of it could be spent on these items which could be used in the new Union next year. It certainly would be money well spent.

What do you think about this idea? Any comments or or can will be welcomed by the Call. Just write us a letter and tell us how you feel about it. If you do not like this idea, how about suggesting another one? If someone can think of a good place to go, less students will go home on weekends because "there is not anything to do."

From The Underground

An earthworm poked his head through some mud the other day and subtly attracted my attention. Naturally being a friendly Clarionite, I went over and asked him what the trouble was. He said that he and his underground cronies were a bit distraught because everytime any one of them came up for a breath of wholesome Clarion air, some friendly student just couldn't resist stepping on him. I explained that Clarion College students wouldn't think of stepping on any of his friends, but that walking space was limited. My reason didn't satisfy my small friend, for he began to raise another objection. He said that some of his traveling friends had seen a gigantic project being started last spring. They were rather pleasantly surprised at the prospect of something new to watch, but now, it seems, that they are bored with the sight and miss the traveling space they once had. Again, I tried to calm him down by saying that administration buildings take quite a while to construct. Apparently, I was not successful at persuading my fast-becoming enemy that everyone's happiness was being considered, since he soon brought another problem to light. Repeating again that conditions were threatening his well-being here, he wanted to know what would happen to his relatives and all the friends he knew that lived below this proving ground. I explained that with progress comes certain inconvenient situations. Badgered once more by his incessant stream of questions, I found myself trying to explain what I meant by progress. Well, I said, the progress will be in relation to added dormitory space, more classrooms, and a well-equipped building for library facilities and administration needs. This was fine, he said, but will there be more actual space or simply more space for building purposes. I didn't get a chance to add my comment for the earthworm said that his plight would always be the same, gave a disgusted grimace, and quickly slipped back underground.

Members of the Theater Production Class, and Mary Ann Richards prepare for college production of "The Distant Bell."

Dear Editor:

What is the purpose of the lounge in Loren Given Hall? Is it for the entertainment of the celebrities that visit our campus, or is it for the students who reside there? If it is for the students, why can't we use it? The two nights that the dorm is open to visitors are Wednesday and Saturday. But what about the other days and evenings? Have you ever sought a place to study after seven o'clock where one could converse? Certainly not the library. The authorities will not allow free discussion that disturbs others. The buildings on campus are locked in the evening, and the union, due to the many distractions, is definitely out of the question.

The only place that remains is the lounge. Of course, we should have a set of regulations which everybody can follow. A few examples:

1. If a guy and girl wish to study in the lounge, the girl must be a resident of that dormitory.
2. All studying should be completed at a given hour.
3. Conversation between the parties should not interfere with others.
4. The lounge should always be open on Saturday afternoons.

These are a few simple rules that can benefit the students of Clarion State College. We hope that the situation will be remedied soon, and the lounges open at all times for our use.

Marjorie Gilmore

Dear Editor:

I remember when I was about six years old, I often built beautiful castles in the sandbox our neighbors had. Sometimes the other kids would come over and—reasons I never could understand—would run through the sandbox, destroying all that I had created. You can excuse six and seven year olds for this type of action—they are not mature enough to understand other people's right. But how can you make excuses for college men who do the same thing! The destroying of the newly completed snow sculptures last Saturday night has left a very bad taste in my mouth. Many hours were spent building them, and only the few people who saw them that day had the opportunity to appreciate the finished products.

The apostle Paul said, "When I became a man, I put away my childish ways." I wish some of the big college fraternity men would go and do likewise.

Phi Sigma Pi Fraternity Purchasing New Jackets

The gold and purple jackets, which are being seen on campus this semester, do not belong to students from another school. They denote members of Phi Sigma Pi National Honorary Fraternity.

This fraternity is restricted to students who have obtained a high scholastic average and have shown a similar degree of ethical and moral character. Unfortunately, in the past this fraternity has tended to be "little noted nor long remembered" by any but its members. Realizing this, the brothers of Phi Sigma Pi have embarked on a program which is dedicated to gaining recognition for our fraternity. In addition to the regular bi-monthly meetings of the fraternity, a once a month business and professional meeting with a noted guest speaker and an occasional social event have been added to the agenda. Also, for the first time, members of the fraternity are buying fraternity jackets.

Under the guidance of its president, Don Bishop, and its other officers, Stan Slora, Jan VanDresar, Dave Simmons, and Paul Chantry, the fraternity is striving to take an active roll in campus life.

Other brothers who are here on campus and working to make this project successful are: Ralph Montgomery, Don Dinny, Bill Morrow, Denny Gaiser, Harry Kolakowski, Bob Avery, Dave Bonnell, Emilio Cipollone, John Cliff, John Fedorko, Gerald Kamer, Jim Sheely, Ken Snyder, Tom Vizza, Edward Golla, Ron Shumaker, and Joe DeFelice. They have been ably assisted in the past by Mr. Spence, whose continued aid and council, has been bolstered by the addition of Dr. Peirce and Dean Moore as advisors.

These are the men who are presently engaged in carrying out the educational and social activities of Phi Sigma Pi. They obtained their membership not because they had friends in the group, nor because of popularity on campus, but because they worked hard and earned the right to be admitted. We are justly proud of our fraternity and want to see it grow. It is our hope that next fall we will be able to welcome many new men into our organization and that Phi Sigma Pi, through their efforts, will obtain the status at Clarion that it now enjoys on many other campuses.

No, he is not having a convulsion. He is doing the twist.

Golden Eagles Finish Season Triumphant

The Clarion Golden Eagles added a tremendous finish to their season by defeating the strong St. Vincent Bearcats by a score of 75-57 on Saturday, March 3.

The Clarion squad played one of their better games of the season in their effort to defeat the favored St. Vincent team. The Golden Eagles finished the season with a 8-10 record under the able guidance of Coach John Joy in his first year of college competition. The Bearcats of St. Vincent College finished the season with a 8-13 record.

Clarion went into the game weakened by the absence of three players: Dale Wasylink, Chuck Snell, and George Rocco. But the absence of these players was more than adequately made up for by fine performances by the rest of the team. Jim Rachinni, a freshman, played in his first varsity game this year and did a good job rebounding and hit the cords for ten points. Bill Leachman, a Clarion Junior, was high scorer of the game with 22 points.

The first half of the game was one of rebound supremacy for the St. Vincent Bearcats. At the 10:00 mark they led by a score of 19-12 and at the 16:00 mark they led by a score of 22-14. By the end of the half the Golden Eagles had cut their margin to three points. The half ended with a score of 34-31. In the first half, Clarion shot 59 percent from the field while St. Vincent shot 53 percent from the field.

In the second half, Clarion came back with strong rebounding plus good shooting percentage. After two minutes of play, Bill Leachman of Clarion tied the game up with a drive down the middle, 34-34. Jack Himes then sunk a shot to put Clarion ahead, 36-34. St. Vincent then tied the game up again and went ahead on a shot from Mike Mickinak, 38-36. Clarion Freshman Jim Rachinni scored at the 5:45 mark to tie the game up 38-38 and Ed Green put Clarion ahead with a field goal, 40-38. From this point, Clarion's lead was never relinquished.

At the 12:00 mark in the second half Clarion led by a score of 53-43. The game ended with Clarion winning by a comfortable 18 point margin, 75 to 57.

In the second half, Clarion shot 47 percent from the field while St. Vincent shot only 18 percent.

Gold Eagles Defeat Bald Eagles, 80-72

The Clarion Golden Eagles broke a three-game losing streak Friday, February 16, by defeating the California Bald Eagles, 80-64.

The game took place in Clarion's Harvey Gym before nearly 500 people.

California now has an overall record of 1-17 which probably constitutes one of its worst basketball seasons. Clarion now has a 6-8 overall record with a 4-5 mark in conference play and has good chances of ending the season with a 500 percentage.

The first half of Friday's game was relatively close. At the 10:00 20-19. With seven minutes to go in the first half, Clarion's Bill Leachman came into the game. Bill suffered an ankle injury at the Edinboro game and did not start in Friday's game but Coach John Joy was forced to use him because of his rebounding power.

The first half ended with a score of 40-36 with Clarion leading.

In the second half of the game Clarion steadily piled up its lead over California, greatly aided by the fine shooting of Terry Thompson who tallied a tremendous 37 points.

CSC WRESTLERS . . . Shown above, the Clarion State College wrestling team which Tuesday, Feb. 27, completed its most successful season since the sport was resumed at CSC in 1959-60. The Golden Eagles gained a 7-2 record, won the Western Pennsylvania State College Wrestling Tournament, and competed in the State College Tournament last week end. The wrestlers are, left to right, front row, K. Lockey, T. Inglese, B. Downes, R. McIntyre, A. Catalano and R. Smith. Second row, L. Chew, R. Clayton, D. Caslow, M. Stuchell, R. Baker and J. Izzi. Third row, Coach Frank Lignelli, P. Rayman, P. Gereluk, F. Grundler, A. Murnyak and E. Petrucci. Back row, J. Wilkinson, R. Repasky, and Ted Salvin.

CSC Wrestlers Have Successful Season Place Sixth In Tournament

Clarion State College wrestlers finished sixth in the 19th annual Pennsylvania State Colleges Wrestling Tournament held at Lock Haven Saturday, March 3.

Ten schools participated. Bloomsburg won the matches, defeating champion Lock Haven, 96-91.

Other team scores: Millersville and Shippensburg 28, Slippery Rock 25, Clarion and East Stroudsburg 22, California 21, Indiana 17 and Edinboro 0.

For Frank Lignelli's Golden Eagles, Alex Murnyak finished second in the 191-pound class, being pinned by Bob Hall of Bloomsburg in the finals. Murnyak is in his first year of wrestling at CSC and never wrestled in high school.

Pete Rayman, 147-pound class, finished third; Wayne Volentine, 123-pound class, finished fourth; and Ron Clayton, 115-pound class, finished fourth.

Dave Caslow's undefeated string was broken at 11-0 as he lost by one point to Hutchinson of Shippensburg while wrestling in the 123-pound class.

SRSC Defeat CSC

On Tuesday, February 27, the Slippery Rock Rockets handed the second defeat of the season to the Clarion State Wrestling team by a score of 18-13. Clarion had beaten the Slippery Rock squad earlier in the season by a score of 17-13. The match appeared to be a sure win for Clarion, for after four individual bouts the score was Clarion 13, Slippery Rock 2. But the remaining four wrestlers for Clarion failed to come through as Slippery Rock won the next four individual bouts, two of them by pins. The highlight of the match was the fact that Dave Caslow of Clarion preserved his undefeated record by decisioning Fisher of Slippery Rock, 5-4.

Clarion State College wrestlers finished their most successful season since the sport was resumed in 1959-60 despite their 18-13 loss to Slippery Rock on Tuesday, February 27.

Competing in the Pennsylvania State College Conference, Frank Lignelli's grapplers ended the regular season with a 7-2 record in addition to copping the Western Pennsylvania State College Tournament held at Edinboro earlier this year.

CSC used to wrestle before WW II, stopped during the war, resumed from 1946 to 1950, dropped it again, and then began in 1959-60. Key to the latest resumption of the sport and the success of the team is coach Frank Lignelli who wrestled at CSC in 1946-50 and brought the sport back to the college when he returned to teach. Lignelli wrestled in the 177-pound class and was also student coach of the team in his senior year at CSC. He then taught and coached at Monongahela High School until he returned to CSC in 1957-58. The following year, he got a wrestling team going.

The team earned respectable 5-4 records in its first two seasons. By this year the training had paid off.

One of the most impressive points about the nucleus of this year's team is that it is composed of three freshmen, four sophomores, and one junior. Thus next year looks even better than this.

Also, the number of grapplers on the squad has increased from 14 for the last two years and earlier this year to 28 at this time. This is a healthy sign of interest in the sport.

Unlike basketball, football, or baseball, in which frequent substitution can give everyone the chance to play, wrestling can utilize only eight boys in a match. Thus the difficulty in keeping interested those boys who are not on the first team.

Lignelli selects his team for each match by having eliminations between all the boys several days before the match. Thus the hope springs eternal that a member of the second team can upset a regular in the eliminations and get into the big match. And, if not, there's always next year.

Lignelli, who is also assistant football coach, assistant dean of students, and associate professor of safety education, is able to bring his grapplers up or down a certain number of pounds so as to put his best boys in any particular class. He has brought a boy down as much as 26 pounds, from 173 to 147, but this is the exception.

For anyone interested in losing weight, Lignelli uses diet, steam showers and the use of sweat clothes while practicing. And wrestling itself, a far cry from the phoney groans of television, is guaranteed to at least shift the weight around.

CSC had one undefeated wrestler, Dave Caslow, a first semester junior from Hempfield Township who wrestles in the 123 or 130 pound class, has a 9-0 record, and also won the Western Pennsylvania State College Tournament two years in a row.

Two other boys from Hempfield Township are Merle Stuchell, a junior in the 137-pound class with a 3-2 record and fourth place in the tourney; and Jim Wilkinson, sophomore in the 147-pound class with a 1-3 record and a third place in the tourney.

Jeannette High School supplied two of the wrestlers: Ronald Clayton, freshman in the 123-pound class with a 2-2 record and a winner in the tourney; and Dick Baker, a sophomore in the 137-pound class with a 4-4 mark and third in the tourney.

Other grapplers playing key roles on the CSC squad are:

Lee Chew, junior from Chartiers High School, 130-pound class 2-1 record; Pete Rayman, freshman from Irwin, 147-pound class, 3-0-3 record; Joe Izzi, first semester freshman from New Bethlehem, 157-pound class, 1-2 record; Pete Gereluk, sophomore from Warren, 167-pound class, 5-4 record and second in the tourney; Frank Grundler, freshman from Shaler, 177-pound class, 4-5 record and second in the tourney; Alec Murnyak, sophomore from Bald Eagle, 191-pound class, second in the tourney and last, but definitely not least in any way, shape, or manner, Earl Petrucci, sophomore from Burgettstown, a heavyweight with an enviable 7-2 record and first place in the tourney.

For anyone who's never seen anything but TV wrestling, Lignelli extends an invitation to watch the SCS grapplers in action.

The only groans and screams one will hear will come from the enthusiastic spectators, not from college wrestlers.

A Peek at Greeks

By Marjorie Gilmore and Andrea Hall

One of the main interests of the sororities and fraternities is the Greek Night which will be held soon. Competition will be keen, but good sportsmanship must prevail if our campus wishes to have more inter-Greek projects. We need them to keep our college growing for a better social life.

ALPHA PSI OMEGA, the national honorary dramatic fraternity, wishes to extend congratulations and best wishes to its new members, Carol McDonald, Robert MacClenan, Elizabeth Sibley, Mary Ann Kovaly, Robert Avery, and Eileen Mangini. They were initiated into the organization Sunday, March 4.

Two of the members, Carol McDonald and Robert MacClenan, will be seen in the forthcoming play, "A Distant Belle," starring Martha Scott.

BETA CHI UPSILON extends gardenias to Patty Reiter who is one of Clarion's four representatives to State Collegiate Band at Slippery Rock.

The Beta went Hobo during the informal rush party, and Glenn Miller was the feature attraction during the formal rush party. The sisters hope that the parties were enjoyed by those who attended.

CLARION STATE COLLEGE BAND PREPARES FOR SPRING CONCERT

A Clue to Clubs

The P.S.E.A. will hold its meetings in Room A of Science Hall until further notice. The next meeting is scheduled for March 20 at which time the plans for the conventions will be discussed. The two conventions are: Midwestern Regional Convention at Grove City on March 31, and State P.S.E.A. Convention at Shippensburg on April 27th.

There was a meeting of the Newman Club on Wednesday, February 28. The meeting included a panel discussion by the Religious Education Committee.

Because of the church services held at this time, it was decided that the meetings would be held every other week during Lent.

On Ash Wednesday, Newman Club members attended the services and Mass together.

Starting March 14, the Cana Conference will take place from 8:30 to 9:30 for five weeks in the gym of the Immaculate Conception Church. This conference may be of interest to all those about to enter into the Sacrament of Marriage, but all Catholics are invited to attend.

The Chess Club is pleased to announce that they will sponsor a booth at the affair being planned by the Class of 1965.

A newly formed organization met for the first time on February 28, 1962. There were over 30 students present. This organization will be known as Speech and Hearing Society. The society will include in its future plans activities such as field trips, speakers and other professional projects. All interested students are invited to the meeting. Please contact Mr. Liebman, Room 391, Science Hall.

The College Choir is the newest vocal group to be formed at Clarion State College. The choir was started in the fall of 1961 under the direction of Mr. Edward Roncone, the newest addition to the music staff. College Choir meets on Monday and Wednesday evenings, from 5 to 6 p.m. in the music hall.

The choir is open to all students on campus and it is continually adding and inviting new members. Included in the variety of music which is sung are: "All Praise To Thee," "Charlottown," "He Plays It Crazy," and "Tamale Joe."

Clarion State College Receives Contribution

WALTER HART, chairman of the Financial Aid Committee of Clarion State College, is shown receiving a check for $1,105 from Mrs. Guy V. Sterley of Clarion. She represented the Class of 1911. The check is a contribution from the class of 1911 which celebrated its fiftieth graduation anniversary this year. The money will be added to the National Defense Loan Fund here at Clarion.

Campus Holds CSC Students Tour New York

The Clarion State College Class of 1965 is going to sponsor a Spring Carnival on the campus practice field. In order to get into the festival spirit, there will be a square dance on Friday night, April 27; the actual fair will be held on Saturday, April 28, weather permitting. An all campus election will be held to select a king and queen who will reign over the festivities. Needless to say, there will be games and prizes for the children as well as for the adults; the booths will be run by the various fraternities and clubs. The College Players will give a presentation in their theatre-in-the-round. The community of Clarion is cordially invited to attend this gala affair.

Fair Rated Success

On Saturday, March 24, the Fifth Annual Science, Mathematics, and Geography Fair was held on the campus of CSC. Students from the elementary and secondary grades of twenty school districts presented their exhibits. Approximately 350 to 400 entries were on display in Davis Hall, Science Hall, and the Demonstration School; these exhibits were categorized in the following manner: Biology, Mathematics, Elementary Physics, Chemistry, General Science, and Geography. Judging of the displays lasted from 9:30 to 10:30 a.m. with a first, second, and third award made in each division, as well as many honorable mentions. In the afternoon, the fair was concluded in the Chapel with a movie and a lecture presented by Hal H. Harrison.

The group stopped in Harrisburg for their lunch on Thursday and at Easton for their supper on their way to New York.

They stayed at the Hotel Woodstock while in New York.

Friday was the main day for touring. In the morning they visited Times Square, the New York Subways, and Grand Central Station. They also had a guided tour of the United Nations Building. In the afternoon they traveled to the Statue of Liberty and climbed to the top.

The rest of the time the students were permitted to sight see at their own leisure.

Dr. King, Mrs. King, Miss Pryor, Mr. Campbell, and Mr. Johnson were the chaperons for the trip.

A general consensus of opinion was that "a good time was had by all!"

second, and third award made in each division, as well as many honorable mentions. In the afternoon, the fair was concluded in the Chapel with a movie and a lecture presented by Hal H. Harrison.

Library Students Go to Kutztown

Clarion's campus will be represented by 75 students at the Spring Library Convention at Kutztown State College. The Clarion students are the sophomore, junior, and senior members of the library science curriculum. They will travel to Kutztown by bus for the convention on April 13 and 14.

The theme of the conference is "The Publisher and the School Librarian." Because of the many recent mergers of publishing houses, this is a current topic which needs to be discussed. At the conference dinner on Friday, Dr. R. M. Myers, a biographer of words, will speak. Dr. Nancy Larrick will address the group at the luncheon on Saturday.

The spring library conference serves as a meeting place for librarians and future librarians. Here they discuss together current library problems. Displays and exhibits are also sources of new and better methods of library equipment and material.

PSEA Conference

Adolf Poli, president of Clarion's P.S.E.A., and a group consisting of Bunny Boljer, Mary Reznemski, Kathy Whitshot, Janet Barbero, and Andrea Hall represented Clarion at the Midwestern Region Conference of Student P.S.E.A. and P.F.T.A. held at Grove City College on March 31. Mr. Lorenz accompanied the group.

Special Education Curricula Offered

In a recent interview with Dr. Robert Small, head of the Department of Education and Psychology, the following facts were disclosed about the new curricula in Special Education.

Q. What curricula will be offered?

A. We have been authorized to offer three programs: Teaching the Mentally Retarded, Speech Correctionist, and Speech and Hearing Teacher (Itinerant program).

Q. Who may take these programs?

A. Any student who has a sincere interest in helping the less fortunate child, who for some reason or other has a handicap to learning.

Q. What courses must one complete to finish in Special Education?

A. This, of course, varies with the curriculum. The Speech Correctionist certification is considered to be a major field, the same as is Mathematics or Foreign Language of Speech. It requires 24 semester hours of work.

The Speech and Hearing Teacher, (Itinerant Program) is an 18 hour program. It could make a very desirable second field for a person with a major in secondary education, as it does provide certification at the completion of the 18 hours.

The program for teaching the mentally retarded is a 12 hour program. Probably, it is best designed for those students who are elementary majors, who may elect to complete it as their 12 hour block of required subject matter. Secondary majors who wish to complete this certification must also complete a basic course in the teaching of reading and a basic course in the teaching of arithmetic. This brings the initial entry requirements to 18 semester hours for secondary education majors.

Q. What courses must one take to begin his special education courses?

A. Two courses are offered during second semester. Psychology of Exceptional Children is prerequisite to all programs of special education. Introduction to Speech Correction is prerequisite to the two programs in Speech Correction. The first of these courses will be offered on Thursday evening to provide for the need of teachers in the field. Regular students may enroll for this course if they have completed General Psychology.

Q. When will other courses be offered?

A. Required courses will be offered during all three sessions of the summer session, making it possible for one to complete the academic requirements. Student teaching for regular students will be a part of their regular student teaching assignment. Requirements in student teaching for certified teachers may be completed during the six-week summer session. We shall have a special education demonstration class on campus during that time.

Q. Who will teach the courses?

A. Actually, the courses will be taught by the members of the Education and Psychology Department and members of the Speech Department. The programs will be coordinated by the Director of Special Education. Eventually, it is expected that the Special Education Department will grow to be a regular department of the college.

Moses Writes Speech Article

Dr. Elbert R. Moses, Jr., Chairman of the Department of Speech and Dramatic Arts of Clarion State College and author of more than twenty published professional research papers, has one of his latest papers, "Experience with Tongue-Palate Contacts" appearing in the March, 1962, issue of Speech Monographs.

Dr. Moses's publication is based on a paper he read at the Fourth International Congress of Phonetic Sciences held in Helsinki in September, 1961. It is also a condensation of a chapter in his forthcoming book, "Experimental Phonetics," scheduled for a spring release by Prentice Hall, in 1964.

Dr. Moses has had two previous articles published in the Speech Monographs. His first, "Some Resultant Changes After Filling (High) Palatal Vault," was published in 1941. The second, "A Study of Word Diversification," appeared in the 1959 Monographs of the Speech Association.

The paper, "Experiments with Tongue - Palate Contacts," deals with the history of experiments in palatography covering the last hundred years in the phonetics laboratories throughout the world. Through the study of Palatography, it has been learned that identical sounds can be made by tongue-palate contacts over a large range on the palate, that a stutterer's speech has more variation than the speech of the non-stutterer, that the same person frequently makes the same sound in various ways, that the size and depth of the palate alter the articulation of sounds, that there is a greater accord between the consonant and the following vowel than between the consonant and the preceding vowel, and that palatograms change with the rate of articulation.

Accidents are caused by some act of negligence—they don't just happen. Police conduct accident investigations in an effort to determine the causes so that methods may be developed to prevent collisions in the future. So, remember, accidents are the result of a violation of the motor laws, some act of carelessness or a combination of both.

Editorially Speaking

Meal time at home can be interesting and relaxing. Why can't this same pleasant atmosphere be carried over to the evening meal here at CSC?

The problem begins even before the students enter the dining hall. In an effort to get their preference of seats, students jam the lounge in front of the cafeteria doors, hoping they will find their friends after the stampede is over. By the time they have pushed their way into the cafeteria, they must search for seats that are not being "saved." Finally achieving this goal, they reach a table and make a desperate attempt to hold a few seats for their companions, wherever they may be. This idea soon becomes futile as other famished students gather around the table. After all this struggling, the student often finds himself without his friends, either stuffing the food down or waiting, sometimes impatiently, for the rest of the group to finish.

If tables were reserved at the beginning of the semester, this frantic race to the dining hall would be eliminated. If too many difficulties arise because tables can not be sufficiently filled, perhaps cafeteria style would solve the problem even better. It seems that students prefer cafeteria style to rushing.

Roommates

Heaven help the student whose roommate has an early morning class, can't bear to study without the radio blaring, invites friends in during study hours, and literally litters the room with clothes, books, and dirty dishes.

Naturally no one wants early classes, and since some lucky individuals have charmed the Dean into letting them sleep late, don't hold a grudge. Overhead lights, open doors, and radios are fine at times, but remember, next semester you may be the lucky one sleeping.

Music soothes the nerves, so they say, but Dick Biondi's hits don't always help on the evening before Mr. Greenburg's Lit. tests. Some students have yet to acquire the knack of doing two things at once, and studying usually takes preference over the radio.

Friends are fine, fun, and flocking into the room at all hours. If roommate's cramming, why not visit your friend first before he makes it to your room, unless of course his roommate is studying too. If that's the case, maybe it's time for less visiting and more studying all around.

Certainly both people share the room, but that doesn't mean one is there to mess, the other to clean. Don't go next door to "get away from it all"; two can get more accomplished than one. If time is lacking, at least keep litter on the right chair, bed, and desk so visitors know who litters least!

When one tries to find out just how much his roommate will take, he may find that his roommate has taken himself right out of the room, for good.

Opinions on Trumpeteer

The only adjectives that could describe Mr. Rafael Mendez are magnificent, marvelous, great, and superb. He is without a doubt the world's greatest trumpeteer, and the auditorium of Clarion High School was filled to capacity with an appreciative audience. A few comments on the concert from the student body include:

Chuck Terrano—About the concert, I only have one thing to say—GREAT!

Jim Corbett—I do believe that the band deserved every bit of applause that they received, and then some. Mr. Mendez was also a very great showman and an artist with the trumpet.

Tom Vizza—It was great!
 Laura Wylie—I am sure the whole student body appreciated the concert and that it was a big boost to the morale of the music department.

Charity Dilliant—A program like this was, and will always be, appreciated by the students of Clarion. I couldn't believe my ears or eyes. That a college band could play with a professional was unbelievable, so I thought.

Mary Jane Miller—I was really impressed by the concert Monday night, both by Mr. Mendez and by the playing of our band. Mr. Mendez was terrific, his playing gave me chills. I've never heard a trumpeteer like him before.

Gary Dreihoup—The concert was very well done and the Clarion State College students should have more concerts such as this.

Andrea Hill—Raphael Mendez showed his craftsmanship, showmanship, and cheerfulness to the audience and to the band members.

Pat Reed—I think the concert changed a few opinions that have been made about the band and I feel Clarion's music department will have more and better support in the future.

Marge Gilmore—The director, Stanley F. Micalski, deserves a word of recognition also. Without his supreme efforts, time, and patience, the band would have never functioned well in accompanying Mr. Mendez.

Donna Martinelli—I think Clarion now will be able to recognize the band as a part of the college. Everyone that went, I'm sure, enjoyed Mendez.

Judy Leech—The concert was very enjoyable. Well performed. It showed that the band had given a great deal of time and effort to the performance.

Andy Burlando—The program was very smooth considering the band and Mr. Mendez never performed together before.

Charles Belavic and Martha Scott in a scene from "A Distant Bell."

Dear Editor:

Recently many heated discussions stemmed from an unsigned letter written to the Clarion Call from a "disgusted student and taxpayer." The author of the letter was angered about what he termed the pampering of Martha Scott, who appeared with the college players. This person complained about the sum paid for the entertainer as contrasted with the lack of money spent on classrooms and a student union, which has long been promised to the students. The writer also mentioned the inconvenience placed upon music students who could not practice at certain hours during the day during a part of Miss Scott's stay.

Of course, one will find favorable and unfavorable opinions concerning any entertainer who has been contracted to appear on the campus. Almost everyone enjoys being an amateur critic. However, one should not pass judgment upon the performance first. "Disgusted student and taxpayer," did you see the play? Miss Scott was impressive.

It may also be interesting to the student and taxpayer to know that funds paid for entertainers who visit our campus are in no way connected with the budget that finances the building of classrooms. Entertainers are brought here with funds voted by the Student Senate. And one more thing—work is already underway on the new student union.

Members of the cast and crew of A Distant Bell

Dear Editor:

Something has to be done about the disappearance of so many books from the racks outside of the cafeteria! An ever increasing number of students return from their meals to find that some light-handed person has taken their books. It is no longer safe to leave your belongings outside on the racks.

Spring and Summer Fashions for Men

By ROBERT L. GREEN
 Fashion Director of Playboy Magazine

There is neither a full nor sloppy line to be found in men's clothes this spring and summer. The shape is the "tall look." Suits, jackets and slacks are cut along the lean, lithe lines demanded by young men who have influenced the entire market. Every trick of line and design that slim down and stretch out the well-fed figure of less than towering height is being used.

Ski and sea are the hottest fashion trends in outerwear for summertime. Winter sportswear items have been translated into summer clothes: ski stretch pants into lightweight slacks and jackets, hoods on many different jackets, also draw string bottoms on slicker clothes.

Nautical motifs are on everything (but watch it—a little motif, anchors and flags, etc., goes a long way). The best of the boating trend are the water-repellent poplins in flag designs.

"Stretch" fabrics (originated in Europe for skiwear) are now ready to "give a little" literally to add stretch to outerwear, slacks, walk shorts, sport shirts and swimwear.

As the pheasant soup of one country becomes a gourmet's delight in another country, the stitched "workshirt" look is moving towards high fashion acceptance.

The fresh thought for sport shirts is double duty—on the beach, at the club, in the garden or any place under the sun. Typical is the sport shirt cut along the lines of the cardigan sweater or sports coat (rounded front, three buttons, etc.).

Summer sweaters are seasoned for summer comfort. The word now is "shirting-weight" sweaters and there is a wide choice of knit and texture. We endorse the "uncluttered" and classic lines.

Fashion First: The matching cardigan and shirt set—same yarn, same weight, same texture. These sweatermates can give you a "Fashion First" this summer.

Ascots are gaining in popularity and are very useful as a bold color accent or when used in subtle shades to tone down a bright jacket or sweater.

Fashion Detail: The pocket handkerchief (all white or colored silk square) worn in the breast pocket or a business suit can either be a touch of sophistication or a bit of cornball. Avoid the precisely folded points. The handkerchiefs either should be in casual fold or in the "puff fold." The straight even line is definitely square and out.

Color: The spring and summer scene is bright and dynamic with past raw "hot" shades having cooled down a bit. Color takes on a white, lighter appearance—about a frosted quality. There is a blaze of color in swimwear with the shorter boxer type the most popular shape.

Note: The most predominant color or impact is being felt from new style treatments of the classic red, white and blue.

Look for the upcoming fashion trend of the use of white and whitened effects in the summer wardrobe. You'll see it in slacks, blazers and shoes—a clean, fresh, cool look for summertime.

Wardrobe Hint: Balance your wardrobe with one dark and subdued jacket. The dusky blues are running strong.

Baseball spring practice at Clarion State College is well underway with the first game of the season only a week away. Head Baseball Coach Ernest Johnson recently cut the team from 70 prospective players down to 32 players.

Swim Party Held

The annual swimming party of the W.A.A. was held Wednesday, March 28, at the Old City YWCA. Nineteen Clarion mermaids attended this successful splash party. Basketball intramurals are still going on, with much strong competition and exciting games. This year's championship team will be decided in the approaching playoffs, which should prove to be exciting and hard-fought games.

Temporary plans for a bowling party are in the making. Announcements concerning this event will be made by Gail Jandrew in the near future. Keep an eye on the bulletin board in the gym for this information, girls!

PICTURED ABOVE ARE Pat Reiter, Sandy Pifer, Darwin Tucker, and Monroe Nelson, four C.S.C. students who were selected to participate in the 132-piece band representing 30 Pennsylvania colleges and universities at the Fifteenth Annual Pennsylvania Intercollegiate Band Festival. This event was held March 29, 30, 31, 1962, at Slippery Rock State College, and was directed by the guest conductor, Mr. Leonard Falcone, director of the Michigan State University Band.

THE COLLEGE A CAPPELLA CHOIR of 70 voices has begun its Spring tour of church concerts in the surrounding area. The choir will also appear in the Pittsburgh area high schools for two days. The group is under the direction of William M. McDonald.

About ten members spent Saturday and Sunday, the 24th and 25th of March, at California State College as guests of our chapter at California.

THETA CHI would like to thank their "Dream Girl," Jane Andre, for her fine manner of representing the fraternity this year. In May, Jane will be the Epsilon Xi entry in the "Regional Dream Girl Contest" to be held at Cincinnati.

Professor Charles W. Robbe, director of the Foreign Study Program, has been initiated as a Honorary Member of Theta Chi National Fraternity.

Plans for the fraternity house have been finalized. As of April 1, the brothers of Theta Chi will be located at their thoroughly remodeled fraternity house at 703 Wood Street. This makes our fraternity houses for our growing campus. More news about the house will be forthcoming in the next issue.

This semester, bowling has been on the roster of activities for the chapter. Four teams have been set up. The teams compete every Wednesday night at Ragley's Bowl Arena. The league is under the direction of Edmund Defilippi. Recently the chapter competed against Sigma Tau Gamma and the All Stars from Indiana. Although the fraternity came out on top against Sigma Tau Gamma by a slight margin, they were no match for the All Stars.

ZETA TAU ALPHA would like to extend their congratulations to the band and college players for the fine performances with their special guests, Martha Scott and Rafael Mendez.

Congratulations to Sally Aber and Lorry Kidd on being chosen to attend the House Council National Convention at Penn State last weekend. White violets to Carol Strickland and Lorry Kidd for being selected to attend the Student Senate Planning Conference at Bloomsburg.

A club newly organized on campus is the "Walter's Club." All student employees of the college dining hall automatically become members. Mr. Allen, the catering service manager, is the adviser for this organization. The officers for this semester are: president, Cliff Ramsey; vice president, Dave Rimer, and secretary-treasurer, Gail Hartland.

In the spring semester under these officers, the Walter's Club hopes to stimulate a closer relationship between the student workers and the management. Close co-operation between these two groups results in the solution of many problems which arise concerning food service. In keeping with the festive seasons, the Walter's Club hopes to appropriately decorate the dining hall also.

The College Concert Band will be on tour April 10 and 11, presenting concerts at high schools in the Pittsburgh area. The band members will leave the campus at 7:45 a.m. Tuesday, April 10, and perform at Ford City for a high school morning assembly. Two concerts are planned to be presented at Turtle Creek, afternoon and evening performances on the same day, and residents of Turtle Creek will be hosts to the band members for the night. Wilma L. Tener to Fill the Position of Dean of Women

MISS GRACE PRYOR

Miss Grace Pryor, who has been Dean of Women for the past seven years, plans to retire on July 14, 1962.

Before becoming a Dean, Miss Pryor had taught school from kindergarten through college level. Prior to her duties as Dean of Women at Clarion, Miss Pryor taught in the Emlenton High Schools. Miss Pryor did not decide to go into the field of Student Personnel Work until she had received her Masters of Education at the University of Pittsburgh, which certified her in guidance and guidance counseling.

Miss Pryor says that she has enjoyed her work at Clarion very much, especially that of working with the young adults who have learned from her in spite of her. Also, Miss Pryor stated that she has enjoyed and appreciated her friendship with the members of the administration and faculty.

The professional organizations that Miss Pryor is a member of are: American Association of University Women, P.S.E.A., N.E.A., and the Women's Club of Clarion.

Miss Pryor's hobbies are collecting Early American pieces, re-covering of chairs with needlepoint, and she plans to add cooking to her list of hobbies after she learns how to cook.

After her retirement, Miss Pryor plans to go to Ontario, California, and also to visit the Seattle World's Fair in Washington.

MISS WILMA L. TENER

Miss Wilma L. Tener, of Wilmington, Ohio, has accepted the position of Dean of Women and Assistant Dean of Students. Miss Tener received her Bachelor of Arts Degree from Bethany College in Bethany, West Virginia, as a major in psychology, and she received her Masters of Science Education from Indiana University in Bloomington, Indiana, as a major in College Student Personnel Work.

While a student at Bethany College, Miss Tener was very active in student affairs. She was elected to KALON, an honorary organization for campus leaders and was selected to represent Bethany College on Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges.

Miss Tener is now a member of Pi Lambda Theta, a professional fraternity, National Association of Women Deans and Counselors.

Presently, Miss Tener is working in the Residence Hall Program connected with the Women's Student Government at Indiana University.

The new Dean of Women will not live on campus; therefore, she will be responsible for all women affairs, as well as those for the residence halls. The office of the Dean of Women and Assistant Dean of Students will be located in Egbert Hall in order to form a closely co-ordinated relationship with the Dean of Students and the student body.

Peggy Corle Crowned Miss CSC of 1962-63

Miss Peggy Corle, a Clarion freshman, won the title of Miss CSC at the annual pageant held on May 3 in the college chapel. Representing Delta Zeta sorority, Peggy competed with nineteen girls who represented various clubs, fraternities and sororities on campus. The girls who participated were Peggy Corle, Gloria Cyphert, Sandy Johnson, Mickey Curinga, Judy McLaine, Carol H. Smith, Diana Heredia, Carroll Byers, Jane Miller, Joanne Smail, Jane Andre, Torri Novak, Donna Martinelli, Cathy Caylor, Pat Patch, Arlene Spoales, Pat Reiter, and Linda Addis.

The girls competed in three divisions—gown, swimsuit, and talent. Peggy wore a black chiffon gown with a rose at the waist. Her talent contribution was a song, "Doing What Comes Naturally."

Five finalists were chosen after the gown, swimsuit, talent competitions among whom were Peggy Corle, Delta Zeta; Jane Andre, Theta Chi; Sandy Johnson, Sigma Sigma Sigma; Torri Novak, College Choir; and Gloria Cyphert, Phi Sigma Epsilon. These finalists then were judged on the basis of their answering of three questions:

Do you believe that the federal government was justified in opposing the recently proposed steel price increase, or do you believe that its action endangered our system of free enterprise? Do you believe that a woman can successfully combine marriage and a career? What is your reaction to the statement, "Behind the success or failure of every great man there is a woman?"

The judges, Mr. William Hearst, Lee Miller, Miss Kay Leve, and John Haskell, selected Torri Novak and Sandy Johnson as second runners-up, Jane Andre as first runner-up, and Peggy Corle as Miss CSC.

Dolores Green Sutcliff, winner of the 1961-62 Miss CSC contest, crowned Peggy. The new Miss CSC will also compete for the county title held at the Clarion High School on May 26.

Bob Avery and Loretta Kidd were the commentators for the display of gowns and swimsuits. Roy Lash provided background music on organ. Loretta Kidd was in charge of the pageant, while Bob Copeland and Dr. Rischel were faculty advisors.

Student Senate Officers Named

The Student Senate officers and members were elected on May 8 for the 1962-63 school term. In the election procedures the students who were interested in becoming members of the Student Senate were notified that petitions for officers and for membership as senators were available beginning at one o'clock on Monday, April 16, 1962, in the office of the Dean of Students. The petition, with the required number of signatures, was an indication of the student's interest in becoming a candidate for Student Senate.

There were twelve students who petitioned for officers and membership as senators on Student Senate. On May 8, from noon to five o'clock, elections were held for officers of Student Senate. The officers for the 1962-63 term are: president, Glenn Plyler; vice president, Wayne Crosby, and secretary, Eileen Bleil.

Eileen Bleil is a sophomore from Butler majoring in English and history. Eileen has been recording secretary for the Newman Club, Concert and Lecture Committee, Mr. Roncome, and for the College Choir. She is a member of W.A.A. and College Players. Eileen says that as secretary of the Student Senate, "I hope to do my best in taking accurate minutes and in giving the students an accurate report of all Student Senate attempts and accomplishments."

Wayne Crosby is a junior majoring in chemistry and biology. Wayne is an active member of Circle K, Bios Club and is treasurer of the Student Christian Association. As vice president of Student Senate, Wayne says, "I will give my best to the job. I will be behind the president and members of the Senate in making the Student Government of the students, by the students and for the students."

Carole Boris as Blanche DuBois and Charles Belavic as Stanley Kowalski in the climax scene of Tennessee Williams' famous play, Streetcar Named Desire.

Streetcar Named Desire a Striking Success at CSC

One may disagree with the themes and theories of modern dramatists; he cannot deny the strength and intensity with which they assert their claims. A case in point is "A Streetcar Named Desire," currently being staged by the College-Community Theater. A smash on the New York stage and a successful motion picture, "Streetcar" is probably the most widely known of the plays of Tennessee Williams, a leading exponent of modern naturalistic drama.

"Streetcar" is a very difficult play to perform since it requires a wide range of dramatic ability and dedication; the characters range from the archly pseudo-sensitive Blanche to the blatantly basic Stanley. Clarion is fortunate indeed to have players of the caliber requisite for this drama.

Carole Boris plays Blanche brilliantly and expresses both her cloying falseness and pathetic attempts to mask her rather pitiable sensitivity and helplessness. Charles Belavic is equally brilliant as Stanley, a role which Belavic exploits to the proper mixture of naked brutality and strong masculinity. The chemistry of the stage enables these two to create moments of electric, breath-taking intensity.

The other principle parts require similar talent and interpretation; they are admirably created by Carol McDonald and Bob McClennan. Miss McDonald as Stella, Stanley's wife, renders strongly and sympathetically the part of a woman hopelessly in love with a man unworthy of her. McClennan, as Mitch, the object of Blanche's final attempt at the strength, stability and decency her life has never contained, is virile, strong and very convincing.

"Streetcar" more than most plays, requires expert enactment of the supporting and minor characters. Deserving of special mention in this area is Arlene Steinberg, a newcomer to the Clarion stage; as Eunice, the occupant of the upstairs apartment in the Kowalski house, Miss Steinberg is bawdy, uninhibited, and delightful.

For purposes of mood and authenticity of drama and setting, Mary Clemens adds the power of "blues" in fine style. One could proceed through the entire cast with complementary appraisal including the one-shot appearances of Jeanie Port, Gary Reynolds, and George Dicky.

Modern drama by its very nature requires able direction and technical guidance. Bob Copeland provides this in "Streetcar." Particularly effective are his uses of stage, apron, stairways, and foreground of the theater, giving the production the modern aspect of theater-in-the-round. Lighting is well arranged and the coordination of music and special effects give the production a polished, well-integrated air.

No one who presumes to the title "Educated" can allow himself to be ignorant of modern drama and the view of life that it offers. "Streetcar," with its odd mixture of debauchery, ignoble characters, fine dramatic irony, and unusual opportunities for staging, would serve as an excellent introduction to the modern theatre.

Editorially Speaking

Even though it is late in the year many words such as participation, cooperation, and interest enter my mind. You may wonder why these words are bothering me at this late date right before finals.

Last week our campus held its election of Student Senate officers and new members. Unfortunately only twenty-two percent of the student body had enough concern about their governing organization to pause for a moment in the hall of Seminary to vote for the students who were willing to give their time and concern for the governing of our student affairs. Just how important was this minute to the other seventy-eight percent of our students. Some had to stand outside of their classroom talking, others had to have that cigarette in the Union, while others just could not stay out of bed another moment.

No doubt these same students will be the same ones who will complain about: who is on the Senate, what the Senate does, and why they are not on the Senate themselves.

This leads to another point. How many students had enough initiative to run for these offices? A grand total of twelve students from a student body of 1700 petitioned for this organization. Surely we have more than twelve leaders on this campus. Where are they? Do they not have the interest or feel the need to participate in such activities? After all, it is only the Student Senate that decides how our fifty dollars a year activity fee is spent. Any money allotted for our other organizations has to be approved by these twelve students. They also decide what money should be allotted for each dance, each assembly, and any other activity on campus.

Before you complain about our student affairs next year, consider the fact that you were eligible to run for this position and help with the situation.

If the people of the United States were as concerned about their governing bodies as the students here at Clarion, the United States would be in a very sad situation.

best wishes to her as she leaves Clarion to do her student teaching.

Staff of the CLARION CALL, 1961-62

Dear Editor:

In the past this column has been devoted mainly to criticism and disapproval of campus activities, students, and school policies. In this last issue, I wish to compliment the CSC campus, faculty, and student body. The happenings taking place this year have been a tremendous asset to Clarion. On campus construction of the new library and administration building, the speech correction center, and the new girls' dormitory have added to the growth of Clarion.

The faculty has willingly offered more of what little free time they have to contribute to student activities. They too have been responsible for many of the achievements on campus. The addition of the office of Dean of Students has created more cooperation and a better understanding between students and faculty. The interest of both Dr. and Mrs. Gemmell has been responsible also for creating such a pleasant atmosphere on campus.

The Class of 1962

This issue of the Clarion Call will be the last issue of the semester and the last issue our editor, Nina Miller, will ever supervise. Through the year Nina has done more work and spent more time on this paper than any three staff members put together. She has reported, written feature articles, thought up layouts, and acted as delivery boy. She has made the Clarion Call into a well-read, timely newspaper.

We, the staff of the Clarion Call, would like to express our opinion in this article. We sincerely believe that it would take an excellent editor with a large amount of patience and ambition to do half the job Nina has done this year. We wish to extend to Nina our thanks for her hard work and our

A satisfied student

The Joys of Springtime

Ah, Spring—a time of joy and fresh beauty, a time of love, of happiness...Hah! Maybe the poets it is, but not to any student of Clarion State College. To him the coming of spring simply signifies the coming of that dread event—finals. While he should be spending his time looking at blossoming trees and engaging in other outdoor activities, he spends it looking at textbooks and engaging in the glorious activity of cramming as much knowledge into his brain as possible. Everywhere one looks, there is a student busily typing out reports, notebooks, and term papers. The lucky one who has this much done is trying to catch up on the past sixteen chapters he has never read. And then there is also the poor, lost soul who is typing his term paper and trying to read sixteen chapters at the same time.

The girl who is out sun bathing is not really there for that purpose, actually she is writing a term paper. The person who appears to be sleeping is all the while engaging in hypnopoeidia (sleep teaching) as he frantically tries to make use of every available minute in order to learn something.

May 18 is when the atmosphere of C.S.C. takes on a tense expectancy. From that time on, cigarettes and coffee becomes the complete diet of the student. A girl rushes to her 8 o'clock finals with straight hair and a boy has a wrinkled shirt. The student's hand is no longer steady, but shakes as he picks up his pencil and begins his test. For one, solid, horrible week, the student is aware of nothing but books, test papers, and more books. Nerves fray and one person assumes the hunted look of one who feels everyone is against him. Another person breezes by his way through finals—he knows he will flunk out anyway.

Then, suddenly, everything is all over. No longer are any books opened. The student feels as if a 100-pound weight has been lifted from his head. As he hurriedly throws his clothes into cardboard boxes, he has but one main dream—home, and his own comfortable bed. For three solid months there will be no more studying, no more worrying about finals. What a glorious thought!

And then there are those who attend summer school.

Library Fund Established

A special Library Fund was established in April, 1961, with the first contribution being made by Circle K. Before the end of the first semester the International Relations Club made a contribution. At commencement the class of 1961 contributed $35 to the fund, making a total of $75.

The purpose of this fund is to buy special editions and other books when regular library funds have been exhausted. To further appreciation of books, it might be desirable at some future time to purchase a rare book or a manuscript.

A special plate for gift books and one for memorial books will be available when money is donated, either as a gift or as a memorial to a friend or relative by students, faculty, or by organizations of the college.

Donations may be given to Miss Rena M. Carlson, librarian.

Chantry Joins Peace Corps

Paul Chantry, a May graduate, is the first member of C.S.C. to join the Peace Corps. Paul will be a member of the project area in Sierra Leone, a nation made independent in 1960. It is the size of Maine and located on the African west coast. His is the second such group to Sierra Leone for the AID education project. This will include the establishment of a Rural Training Institute at Kenema and establishing additional facilities at VJali Teacher Training College at Kenema Technical Institute.

In addition to specialized study at an American university, Paul will undergo physical conditioning at the Puerto Rico Field Training Center beginning June 9 and lasting eight weeks in a site in the United States or Puerto Rico. He will then go to a university of Sierra Leone for three months of training.

The volunteers will work closely with the teachers of their country. They will teach such subjects as general science, social sciences, chemistry, biology, mathematics, physics, English, arts and crafts; also agriculture, auto mechanics, farming, geology, forestry, ceramics and carpentry.

Paul is majoring in biological science and minoring in physical science and social studies. He is a member of Circle "K," Rifle Club, PSEA, Biology Club, Phi Sigma Phi Honorary Fraternity, and Sigma Tau Gamma Fraternity.

Student Union

STUDENTS!! Here is the news for which you have long awaited. The construction of the new student union will start some time this month, and the anticipated opening date for the union is the beginning of the fall semester in September.

The new student union will be built beneath Harvey Gymnasium. It will have an enlarged snack bar with a full soda fountain and kitchen facilities, and there will be a spacious dancing area and lounge.

Gosh! The girls were serious when they said they HAD to be in at Midnight—or else!

Council. While he is president of Student Senate, Glenn hopes that the voting system will be amended, that student activities and participation will reach an overall height of satisfaction. Glenn says, "I feel that it is time that the Student Government starts acting as more than just an organization for distributing Student funds, but as one which will lead the way for student activities which may be used to benefit both the college and the community. I will do my best to make the 1962-63 term a success."

The other members of the Student Senate are: Virginia Burdett, Andrea Hall, Richard Harman, Catherine Jones, Carol McDonald, Walter Smith, Barbara Keeney, Lorrie Kidd, and Tony Szymkowiak.

The first meeting of the new Student Senate was held in conjunction with the past Senate on Thursday, May 10.

Staff Names New Editors

At the last meeting of the Clarion Call staff two co-editors for the 1962-63 term were elected. They are Kathy Jones and Eileen Mangini. The staff decided to set up two co-editors instead of one editor because of the amount of work involved in this position. They also set up an assistant editor who will be a sophomore. Stacy Rousseau was elected to this position.

Larry Whipkey will be writing our sports for next year.

The other positions on the staff were not named, but will be filled in the fall.

Anyone who is interested in belonging to the staff next year should see either Kathy or Eileen.

Vulcans and Eagles Split Double-Header

The Clarion Golden Eagles tangled with the California Vulcans in a baseball doubleheader on Saturday, May 5. In the first game the Vulcans defeated Clarion by a score of 5-4, but Clarion came back in the second game to split the doubleheader by winning 3-2. This gives Clarion an overall record of three wins—four losses and a conference record of 2-2.

In the first ball game, Adamchik (P) and Murnyak (C) started for Clarion. For California Kalocay (P) and Celaschi (C) were the starting batteries. Clarion scored early in the game. In the second inning Washburn started it off with a double, Urban drove him in with a single, Bednarczyk singled, Matalik scored Urban with a single and the pitcher Andy Adamchik scored two runs with a double which finished the scoring for Clarion. Following Adamchik's double, California brought in Katko to replace Kalocay of the mound.

In the fourth inning, California came back, Adamchik walked Descenzo and Corbin, Krnacik then singled to score both runs and the next batter, Celaschi, doubled. McGaulin then relieved Adamchik and struck out Hartmann to finish the inning.

Going into the top of the seventh, California 2, McGaulin walked the first batter Bendel; Artis then doubled. Don Gesin then came in to relieve McGaulin, he walked Krnacik, Celaschi hit to the third baseman, and got on a fielders choice as Washburn (3b) had an error on his throw to home scoring Bendel. This loaded the bases again, Gesin struck out Hartmann, but while he was pitching to him Artis stole home to score on a much disputed play. The next batter, Tekavec, hit to shortstop Bednarczyk who went to Matalik (2b) for one out and which allowed Krnacik to score the winning run from third base. Gesin took the loss for Clarion.

CSC Splits Again With Lock Haven

Lock Haven and Clarion State College baseball teams played to a standstill Monday, April 30, as they split a double-header.

Lock Haven drubbed Clarion by the score of 8-2 in the first game, but Clarion came back to shade their rivals 4-1 in the nightcap.

In the first game, Leese permitted Clarion only six hits while striking out four and walking two. Harry Miller, of Clarion, allowed 12 hits, walked two and struck out five.

Borwig and Berich, of Lock Haven, had four hits to lead the winning attack while Jim Racchini had two of Clarion's six hits.

A triple by Hopkins and doubles by Murnyak and Racchini were the only extra-base hits for Clarion.

The second game was a different story for Clarion as Don Gesin held Lock Haven to five hits while striking out the same number. Hurling for Lock Haven were Schultz, Reasen and Nicholas.

Hopkins led the Clarion attack with two safeties.

On Saturday, Clarion will entertain California in a doubleheader starting at 1 p.m.

Grove City Defeats Clarion In Opener

The Clarion State College baseball team opened the season at home by losing to Grove City on Thursday, April 26, 5-2.

Savorn of Grove City limited Clarion to six scattered hits. He had a three-hit shutout going until he weakened in the ninth. In that inning, Racchini, freshman catcher, touched him for a long home run. Singles by Wytek and Wise sandwiched by an infield out scored the other Clarion tally.

Murnyak, Clarion catcher, was injured and forced out of the game when Dittell slid hard into him in safely stealing home in the third inning.

3 Attend Festival

Arlene Steinberg, Carole Boris, and Eileen Mangini, Clarion students, attended the Fourteenth Pennsylvania Inter-Collegiate Reading Festival held at Penn State on April 26 and 27.

Accompanied by Dr. Elbert Moses, head of the Speech Department, the girls were selected to attend the Penn State Festival after a Reading Festival conducted on a competitive basis on Clarion's campus.

Students participating in Clarion's festival read in three drama. Arlene's reading in the poetry division was "Junkmen's Obligation" by Lawrence Ferlinghetti, while Eileen read "American Letter" by Archibald MacLeish. Carole entered the drama division with "Ondine," a play by Jean Giraudoux. The winner in prose was Edward Cavanaugh from the Venango Campus. Edward's selection was "Tie Down in Darkness" by W. Styron.

The purpose of the reading at the intercollegiate festival was to encourage interpretive reading on the collegiate level rather than a selection of winners.

The participants of the Festival attended a banquet on April 26 hosted by the Department of Speech at Penn State. Following the banquet, members of the Speech Department presented a program.
